msa_sc2915_scm1012-0587 ©Maryland State Archives

Mr. Joseph Sands
Mr. Nimian Pinkney

Mr. Shaw's account being produced to the Vestry amounting to three hundred & fifteen dollars fifty five cents the amount of the subscription including the ground rents of Mrs. Davidson & Mrs. Dulany which were assigned by Mr. Gibson amounts to 305 dollars eleven cents & the Ground rent due from Mr. Golder assigned as aforesaid amounting to 18 dollars 89 cents the whole amounting to 324 dollars the Vestry agreed that the account of Mr. Shaw should be allowed & that the Register pay him the money in his hands, and the order drawn on Mr. Golder to be assigned him that out of the sum of 324 dollars Mr. Ray & Mr. Wheleroft who each subscribed five dollars from which they each claim a deduction for accounts in Bar which have not been produced the Register does not know the amount.

The qualification of Mr. Judd required by the 7th Canon of the protestant episcopal Church of Maryland was produced to the Vestry which appears in the following words Viz.

Croom September 22d. 1807.

That the Reverend Mr. Bethel Judd is a Minister in the orders of the protestant episcopal in America and also that he is a Gentleman of Good moral character have been satisfactorily evidenced to.

Thos. Jno. Claggett Bishop of
The protestant episcopal Church of Maryland

To the Vestry of Saint Anns parish Annapolis

Friday December 11th 1807 the Vestry were convened at Saint Anne's Church in the City of Annapolis on this day at 11 o'clock in the forenoon by request of the Revd. Mr. Judd the Rector who attended & were present Jesse Ray James P. Maynard Joseph Sands & Frederick Green Vestrymen.

The Vestry took into consideration the situation of the stoves when it was agreed that the pipes of the said stoves should be changed to go over the gallery & that Mr. Shaw should be requested to measure the necessary additional pipes that will be wanted for that purpose, & that the said pipes should be procured from the maker in Baltimore in order to have the alteration made as contemplated.

The Vestry adjourned until Saturday week at 12 o' Clock

Robt. Denny Regr.

Saturday December 19th 1807

The Vestry of Saint Anne's parish met at the parish Church of Saint Annes in the City of Annapolis at 12 O'Clock agably to Adjournment present the Reverend Mr. Bethel Judd Rector

Jesse Ray
John Randall
Frederick Green
Joseph Sands
Nimian Pinkney
James P. Maynard
} Vestrymen

The Rector laid before the printed copy of the Office of Induction as established by the protestant Episcopal Church in New York for their consideration

The Vestry again took into consideration the present situation of the stoves in Order to provide against their smoking when it was determined