

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

The following raids were made yesterday, Sunday, November 26th., 1911, viz:

Joseph B. Cooney, Pilmico Hotel, 2424 Penna. ave., selling liquor to other than bona fide guests; released for Court on bail.

Sarah Weinberg, 239 Henrietta street, selling liquor on Sunday; released for Court on bail.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

Patrolman William F. Collett.
Commendatory Letter.

A communication, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed:-

"Baltimore, Md., November 27th., 1911.

Board of Police Commissioners.

Baltimore City.

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the Board of Governors of The Walbrook Athletic Club the following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLVED that the thanks of the Walbrook Athletic Club be and they are hereby tendered to Officer William F. Collett who so cleverly detected and arrested the burglar who robbed the club house on Sunday, November 12th., 1911, and we desire to express our belief that it was through his intelligent work that the goods were returned to us and the burglar punished. And be it further RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Police Commissioners of Baltimore City and also to Officer Collett.

It gives me pleasure to transmit the above resolutions.

Yours truly,

J. BEATSON JONES, Secretary.
Walbrook Athletic Club."
