A communication, as follows, was received:

"Baltimore, Md., December 5th., 1911.

Mr. J. A. Kinsey,

Court House, City.

Dear Sir:-

A great deal of comment has been started in our organization by the conditions reported in last Sunday's Sun, pertaining particularly to the Arcade Hotel on Raborg street, the Laurel Cafe' on Raborg street, Bob's Place on Raborg street and Sam's Cafe', the reporter stating in the article that the police on duty were within earshot of everything that transpired and that disorder and liquor selling have been known to them and etc.

I have no doubt but that the Board has taken cognizance of this matter. If it is not a breach of the rules of your Department, will you kindly let me know if the Board proposes to take any steps toward bringing these guilty people into Court.

Yours faithfully,

SAMUEL E. PENTZ."
