

Sergeant William J. Forrest in company with Officer Harry Lineman, witnessed the performance given by the Markell Dol. Ladies Relief Association, at the Victoria Theatre, Pearce & Schenk, Proprietors, Sunday evening, December 10, 1911, and report as follows:-

" The show consisted of ragtime songs and music, such songs as the mysterious rag, Billie, Alexanders ragtime band, Ocean-na Roll and recitations of the comic order. I do not think it could be called anything but a cheap vauderville show; there was not a hymn nor a bar of sacred music rendered. The house was filled with a noisy crowd.

Respectfully,
