

conveying copy of resolution passed at a meeting held in McCoy's Hall, Baltimore City, December 10th. last, and to say that the Board realizes the importance of stopping the giving of performances on Sunday which are not of a sacred nature; that it is exerting every effort to prevent such entertainments and only to-day sent before the Grand Jury the report made to it of a concert held last night, the character of which, in the judgment of the Board, was not sacred.

I am instructed to say further, that the Board of Police Commissioners will be glad if the Lord's Day Alliance will co-operate with it in this matter, and furnish it with any evidence the Alliance may have tending to show violation of the law in question.

Yours, very respectfully,

JOSIAH A. KINSEY, Secretary."

(See Exhibit No. 3688.)
