I WOULD NOT.

I would not kiss the sweetest lip
Unless it kissed me too;
As well from the young rose-bud sip
The morning's clear, cold dew.

Nor clasp a hand, though soft and warm,
Unless it pressed mine own;
I'd rather love the perfect form
Carved out of Parian stone.

I will not worship eyes, though bright
And beautiful they be;
Unless they bend their living light
On me—and only me!

I would not love a form that Heaven
Itself had stamped divine;
If I but dreamed his love was given
To other hearts than mine.

A Lesson for Suicidal Lovers.

Richard Gould, a journeyman harness maker of Cincinnati, has himself been harnassed by Cupid and driven to the very gates of desperation. His enslaver is a young lady named Charlotte Matthews, whose mother keeps a boarding house on Elm street, and who appears to have made up her mind to some more brilliant alliance than that offered by Mr. Gould. But as Richard has a very good opinion of his own merits and qualifications, he judged that Charlotte's coolness was mere coquetry, believing that, when it came to the scratch, she would cave in at a moment's warning.

He resolved to melt at once the soul of the playful nymph, and to surprise her into an avowal of her true feelings. For this purpose he proceeded to the dwelling of Mrs. Matthews, and stretched himself out upon the front door steps, holding in his hand an empty phial, upon which he had pasted a label of "Strychnine."

"Now there will be an effecting scene when my captivating Charlotte comes out," soliloquized Mr. Gould as he closed his eyes and composed his features to a corpse-like immobility. Presently Miss Matthews appeared at the door with a broom in her hand for the purpose of sweeping the steps. On seeing the recumbent Richard she uttered an exclamation of surprise and then tried to stir him up with the broomstick; but finding that he did not move, she called out, "Mother! mother, here's Dick Gould coiled up on our steps, and I don't know what ails him." "Dead drunk, I guess," said Mrs. Matthews, as she also came to the front door. "No, I'll declare if he hasn't kicked the bucket in reality," said Charlotte, spying the bottle and taking it out of Gould's hand. "See, the fool has been taking strychnine!" "Poor soul!" sighed the benevolent old lady, "how natural he looks!" "He looks about as well as he did when he was alive," observed Charlotte, "and that's not saying much for his beauty. He never could hold a candle to Jim Hickman at any time." [This Mr. Hickman is a spruce young clerk who boards with Mrs. Matthews, and who happened to come home at this very juncture.]

When he saw the supposed corpse, James offered to go for the coroner to hold an inquest over the "poor devil," as he called Mr. Gould.—"Well, I don't like the notion of having coroner and jury fellows poking about here," said Mrs. Matthews.—"No," added Charlotte, "just drag the nasty creature on the cellar door of the next house, Jimmy, and then wash your hands and come in to supper."

Mr. Hickman took the corpse by the feet, to do as he was directed, when Gould dealt him a kick which doubled him up like a jack-knife.—The ladies shrieked, and Mr. Gould, starting up, was beginning to upraid Charlotte for her hardness of heart, but the arrival of a policeman interrupted his oratory, and he walked away a "sadder and a wiser man." Cincinnati Gazette.

A NOVEL ADVERTISEMENT.—The most remarkable among the many remarkable advertisements which daily fall under our notice, in hundreds of exchanges from every section of the country, is the one below:

"A pew is for sale in the meeting house of the first parish in Amerhest. The man that owns the pew owns the right of a space just as long as the pew is, from the bottom of the meeting-house to the top or roof, and he can go as much higher as he can get. If a man will buy my pew and sit in it on Sundays, and repent and be a good man, he will go to heaven if God lets him go. Let a man start from the right place, let him go right, keep right, do right, and he will go to heaven at last, and my pew is as good a place to start from as any pew in the meeting-house."

COMPARISON OF LUBRICATING SUBSTANCES.—A careful experiment, made on the Michigan Central Railroad in regard to the comparative value of whale and metallic oils, resulted in showing a great difference in favor of whale oil. In running a single train one hundred and three days, one-half of the journals were lubricated with whale oil, consuming 28½ gallons, costing 60 cents per gallon; the other half with metallic oil, consuming 27 gallons, costing $1 34 per gallon.

Dress doesn't make the woman, but when a woman is made, she looks a great deal better dressed up.

To Farmers and Planters.

Per-Manipulated GUANO,

A COMBINATION OF

Best Peruvian and the Best Phosphatic Guano, made with the Best Machinery and by the most expert workmen.

ON MOST LANDS AND ON MOST CROPS SUPERIOR IN ITS EFFECTS TO EITHER PERUVIAN OR ANY OTHER GUANO.

By Dr. JAMES HIGGINS,

For the past ten years State Agricultural Chemist of Maryland.

THIS combination of Peruvian and the Phosphatic Guanos was first recommended by me more than six years ago, and very successfully used by many farmers in this State, though several in this city (Baltimore) have pretended to be its inventors. If this statement be denied, I have abundant proof of its correctness.

A long experience as a practical planter and farmer, with the analytical examination for more than ten years, of every kind of Manure sold in our market, (advantages possessed by none others in the trade,) will enable me always to furnish those, who may favor me with their orders, with the best, purest, and therefore the cheapest Manures.

Farmers, planters and others will be furnished with all the Guanos sold in our market. Also, with PLASTER OF PARIS, and PURE or MAGNESIAN LIME, according to the wants of the soil,—and too much care cannot be taken in adapting the proper lime to soils; for the want of this, thousands of dollars have been annually lost to our State. Also the following artificial manures:

Higgins' Super-Phosphate of Lime, prepared under his own direction; and

Higgins' Nitrated Saline Fertilizer,

an admirable Top-Dressing for Wheat, Oats or Grass, which has been very successfully used, and prevents, to a great extent, the wheat from being straw-fallen; where the wheat is pale, sickly or yellow, it at once changes it to a bright, healthy green, and rapidly increases its growth, and greatly promotes the yield.

All Manures sold in our markets are liable to differ naturally, though coming from the same place and bearing the same mark. Still more are they liable to adulterations, &c., and for these things our Inspection System has never afforded an adequate protection.

All Manures sold by me will have my name stamped on each bag or barrel, be carefully analyzed, and for their purity the buyer is pledged a legal guarantee and my personal honor.

The Manures sold by me will be at the same rate as those sold by others in the trade.

Persons wishing to obtain any of the Manures manufactured by me, or any others of my selections, should so specify in their orders to their agents in town.

TERMS CASH, or accepted city paper.

☞I will also attend to the BUYING OF REAL ESTATE, and everything connected with the Farming and Planting interest.

FOR SALE now, several very fine FARMS on the Baltimore and Washington Road, one of them with elegant improvements and every convenience, in the most beautiful and elegant location on it, and several large tracts in Virginia, with negroes, stock, &c., attached.

Gas Light for the Million!!

MACE'S PORTABLE

GAS GENERATOR,

AND

Hydrocarbon Vapor Burner

AND FIXTURES!

HAVING been appointed Sole Agent for the Sale of the above valuable Gas Generator, I am now prepared to supply the Fixtures in all varieties and prices. By this truly valuable invention, the resident of the Country can enjoy the luxury of a first quality Gas light, which for Brilliancy, Economy, and safety of its use, cannot be surpassed.

At a cost of less than One Cent per hour, it produces a LIGHT equal to eight Sperm Candles, and without Smoke or Smell. Each Lamp and Chandelier being a Gas Works in miniature, the consumer is his own producer, therefore no question of leakage or Meter measurement to contend with. He is certain to pay, for that only, which he consumes.

The great desire that has been felt for years for a Portable Gas Light, simple in construction and easily managed, in this invention is fully realized, and must be seen to be appreciated.

Every person in want of a

Superior and Economical Gas Light, either for Town or Country, is invited to call and examine for themselves, and be convinced of its superiority over all other Lights now in existence.

CAUTION!

To all whom it may concern:

HAVING proved Priority of Invention before the Patent Office of the United States, over the so-called "CHARLES B. LOVELESS' Self Generating Gas Burner," on which proof a Patent was granted me by the United States, bearing date the 26th day of October, 1858—This is to caution all persons against making, vending or using the same, as all who so do, will be held responsible for damages, as by the United States Patent Laws made and provided, for such infringements of my Rights, and those holding under me.

Also against the making, using or vending to any parties, the so-called "Johnson's Domestic Self Generating Gas Burners," as the same is an infringement of my Patents, bearing date the 22d day of June, 1858, and also of October 26th, A. D. 1858.

A CARD.

I ADOPT this mode, as a means of reaching all my friends, to urge upon them the prompt settlement of their accounts. I have heavy engagements to meet this Spring, which is near at hand, and they have my funds. I therefore respectfully but earnestly say to them, I want my money—I need my money—I cannot carry on my business without my money. I have been and am still disposed to be indulgent, but the revulsion which has swept over the country has embarrassed me, and I must of necessity collect in my funds—"peaceably if I can, forcibly if I must."

I hope my friends will respond promptly and demonstrate that "a friend in need is a friend in deed." THOMAS W. ANDERSON.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION,

PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution established by special Endowment for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Diseases.

THE HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practiced upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quaks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, for the year ending January 1st, 1858, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphillis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-abuse, and other diseases of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, diet, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. GEO. R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

☞CANVASSING AGENTS (PARTICULARLY FEMALES) wanted everywhere. Agents are allowed to retain 20 cents out of each 50 cent subscription they obtain, and some are now clearing as high as $25 a week profit for themselves. Postmasters and Teachers can act as agents, on the same terms.

☞Persons receiving specimen copies of the LITERARY GAZETTE are requested to act as agents, or to show it to those who will, and they shall be sent a copy of the paper one year gratis, as compensation for their trouble. This is an easy way to pay for a year's subscription, and the effort will put money in the pockets of those who need it, and extend our circulation. Instead of earning 50 to 75 cts. a day with her needle, or by teaching school, a smart woman can procure from 10 to 20 subscriptions every fair day in the week, and clear for herself $2 to $4, while she would have made only 75 cents at her old occupation.

☞All persons extending the circulation of the paper continually get a copy gratis.

☞Applicants for Agencies are requested to send us the names and post-office address of all the leading people they know of, who would be likely to subscribe, and a specimen copy for inspection, will be mailed to each of them free of postage. Agents find this plan very profitable to them, as they obtain subscriptions much easier.

THE FAMILY JOURNAL,

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,

Devoted to Literature, News, Romance, Science and Art.

JOHN B. WILLIAMS, } Editors & Proprietors.
CHARLES H. MOORE, }

IT is a well-known fact that the South is now almost entirely dependent on the North for its hebdomadal literature. It is to be seen whether the Southern States cannot support a literary journal of its own. The parties undertaking this new enterprise are determined to spare no effort or expense to produce a paper which shall effect this purpose, and deserve a share of the support of the reading public. Such a paper, it is hoped, will arouse the somewhat dormant literary condition of our (Baltimore) city, develop its inactive talent; and offer at our own doors a vehicle for the expression of thought, interchange of ideas, and the imparting of new items of information.

The FAMILY JOURNAL will contain Original Stories, Sketches of Travel, Biographical Essays, a Summary of News, domestic and foreign, Reviews of Books, Dramatic and Musical Criticisms, Reports of Popular Lectures, and such general information as will make it a welcome guest in every family. The proprietors are determined that their journal shall be second to none in the variety, interest and value of its contents; in its literary excellence and high moral tone. Politics and Sectarianism will be most rigidly excluded.

Particular attention paid to "answers to correspondents," a talented gentleman having been specially engaged for that purpose.

Arrangements have already been made with a distinguished corps of American contributors, and negotiations are still in progress which will untimately secure the best talent in the country. It is intended that the literary matter in this journal shall be chiefly original; the appropriation from foreign sources, without acknowledment, in the newspapers of the day, is already too frequent. Should any article be selected on account of its superior excellence, credit will be invariably given where it is due.

HORACE WATERS' MODERN IMPROVED PIANOS, with or without Iron Frames, possessing, in their improvements of over-strings and action, a length of scale, power and compass of tone equal to the Grand Piano, united with the beauty and durability of structure of the Square Piano. They are justly pronounced by the Press and by the first Musical Masters to be equal to those of any other manufacturer. They are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material, and guaranteed to stand the action of every climate.

Each instrument guaranteed to give satisfaction, or purchase-money refunded. SECOND-HAND PIANOS, at great bargains, constantly in store; prices from 30 to $140.

HORACE WATERS' MELODEONS, superior instruments in tone, touch and durability of make, (tuned the equal temperament.) Melodeons of all other styles and makes. Prices: $45, $60, $75, $100, $125, $140; double Reeds, $150; double Reeds and two banks of Keys, $200. Less a liberal discount. Clergymen and Churches, an extra discount.

Martin's Guitars, Brown's Harps, Flutes, Flutinas, Accordeons, Violins, and Musical Instruments of all kinds, at lower prices than ever before offered to the public. A large discount to Teachers and Schools. The trade supplied on the most liberal terms.

MUSIC.—One of the largest and best selected Catalogues of Music now published, comprising many of the choice and most popular airs of the day, and will be sold at one-third off from the regular prices.

Music sent by mail to all parts of the country, post-paid. Particular and personal attention paid to all orders received by mail. Satisfaction guaranteed in every instance. Pianos and Melodeons for rent, and rent allowed on purchase. Pianos and Melodeons for sale on monthly payments. Second-hand Pianos taken in exchange for new. General and select catalogues and schedule of prices forwarded to all parts of the country by mail.

☞Great inducements offered to Agents, in all parts of the country, to sell the Horace Waters' Pianos, Melodeons and Catalogue of Music. [July 29, 1858.

ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM.

THE STATES will be conducted with an exclusive regard to the principles of the States-rights Democracy, will be independent of factions, and unbiassed by partial interests—in short, will continue on the line it has pursued under its present management. We presume it has given a sufficient exemplication of its principles and objects to dispense with the necessity of any formal professions.

Located at the Federal Capital, THE STATES has great advantages over other journals in procuring important and valuable information relating to the affairs of government. Its central position also enables it to procure at the earliest moment the latest foreign and domestic news, and in its columns will always be found matters of interest appertaining to Literature, Agriculture and Commerce.

The price of subscription is fixed so low, that it brings the paper within the reach of every person who desires a good and reliable newspaper. We therefore appeal to our Democratic friends throughout the country to aid us in securing THE STATES an extended circulation.

To those who will take the trouble of getting us up a club of ten subscribers, at the rate of ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR for each subscriber, we will send a copy of the WEEKLY STATES for one year gratis.

Payments in all cases required in advance.

Current money in the different States received in payment for subscriptions.

ONWARD.

BY W. HOWARD PERRIGO.

Ever onward, never stopping—
Never lingering by the way;
Let the star of blest hope guide us,
And let's emulate its ray.

Ever onward, never ling'ring—
Never shrinking from the blast;
Boldly struggling, never stopping,
We will gain the goal at last.

Though the way be dark and rugged,
And the sky be overcast,
If we but persevere a brighter day
Will dawn to us at last.

Then struggle bravely onward
Through every scene of gloom,
And from night's mystic darkness
A bright, glad morn will bloom.

NIGHT.

BY W. HOWARD PERRIGO.

'Tis now the gentle hour of night,
The peaceful time for rest;
When holy feelings find repose
Within the human breast;
When earthly cares are set aside,
And hearts are raised above,
Praising the mercy of the Lord,
His goodness and his love.

How sacred and how beautiful
The unobtrusive light,
Which emenates from those pure orbs
That deck the brow of night.
And midst the beauties so sublime,
We set and meditate
On visions bright, which quickly fade,
And mourn upon their fate.

A STORY ABOUT A KISS.

We have frequently noticed that the staidest old maids have the most liberal notices of kissing. Frederika Bremer, with the simplicity and geniality of a Christian, has ever a gentle word for the impulsive lover, if his heart is honest. We find this little story in her last book:

In the university of Upsala, in Sweden, lived a young student—a lonely youth, with a great love for studies, but without the means for pursuing them. He was poor and without connections. Still he studied, living in great poverty, but keeping a cheerful heart; and trying not to look at the future which looked so grimly at him. His good humor and good qualities made him beloved by his young comrades. Once he was standing with some of them in the great square of Upsala, prating away an hour of leisure, when the attention of the young men became arrested by a very young and elegant lady, who, at the side of an elderly one, walked slowly over the place. It was the daughter of the Governor of Upsala, living in the city, and the lady with her was her governess.—She was generally known for her beauty and for her goodness and gentleness of character; and was looked upon with great admiration by the students. As the young men now stood silently looking, gazing at her, as she passed on like a graceful vision, one of them exclaimed: "Well, it would be worth something to have a kiss from such a mouth!" The poor student, the hero of our story, who was looking intently on that pure and angelic face, exclaimed, as if by inspiration, "Well, I think I could have it." "What!" cried his friends in chorus, "are you crazy? Do you know her," &c. "Not at all," he answered; "but I think she would kiss me, just now, if I asked her." "What! in this place, before all our eyes?" "Freely, freely." "Well, if she will give you a kiss in that manner, I will give you a thousand dollars!" exclaimed one of the party. "And I!" "And I!" cried three or four others, for it so happened that
