A Tennessee Farmer done out of $3,000 by Gipsies.

On the 13th of last month, a woman, calling herself Mrs. Rivers, called, with her husband and two children, on a wealthy farmer, named Hezeklah Ferris, at his farm in Winchester, Franklin county, Tennessee. The visitors were gipsies, and made an arrangement to stop with Ferris and his family awhile, having first interested them by exhibitions of seemingly marvelous tricks. The host was much attracted by the apparently wonderful powers possessed by the woman Rivers, and in less than three days was cajoled by her into the belief that a treasure of $100,000 was secreted on his farm, and that it could be regained by proper witch process. For the accomplishment of this object, Ferris' ambition was soon fired, and he and the gipsy woman immediately set about the course of incantation.

Three thousand dollars in gold were necessary for the purpose—so he was made to believe—and as he did not happen to have money at hand, he borrowed the whole sum of a neighbor, getting $1,295 in bank bills, and $1,705 in gold coin. At night the woman Rivers and himself entered a room alone, with a lighted candle, and locked the door against intrusion. A trunk previously provided was then opened, and the incantation commenced. The process was carried on by the woman at first, who tied the money up in a coarse light handkerchief and untied it several times, meanwhile turning about with quick motions, and constantly muttering unintelligible gibberish. When this farcial performance was ended, she and Ferris knelt while she blasphemously offered a prayer, addressed in all mock solemnity to the Giver of all.

The bundle she had apparently made of the money was then in due form deposited in the trunk, which was locked and she retained the key. Together they then left the room, she having previously impressed him with a belief that the deposit just made in the trunk should rest there undisturbed by mortal hands for ten days, at the expiration of which time if he had unalterably adhered to her instructions, he would find the coveted $100,000 on opening the trunk. At the end of the third day of their stay there, the gipsy family departed, the key of the trunk being taken with them. After the woman had gone, it seems that Ferris grew suspicious that perhaps all was not right in the transaction; but he nevertheless overcame his doubts, and awaited with all the patience he could summon for the arrival of the time when he could see himself whether he had been duped or not. He kept the matter to himself for the remainder of the ten days, and then the trunk was forced open. There lay within it the identical parcel he had seen put there by the woman Rivers. A slight action of "all right" touched his feeling, and he hastened to open the covering, and lo! there were not the $100,000, nor the $3,000, but trash equal in bulk to the money he had entrusted to the hands of the false women Rivers.

SELF-MUTILATION.—The Harrisburg (Pa.) Telegraph, of the 31st ult., says that Aaron Irely, a young man who had recently been pardoned out of the penitentiary, where he had been serving a term for horse stealing, went on Wednesday last into a rolling mill in Centre county, and placed his arms between the blades of the large iron shears, which severed both instantly below the elbows. The only reason he assigned for the act was that "his hands had been the means of sending him to the penitentiary, and he was resolved they should not get him into trouble again." The stumps were then amputated by a surgeon, and he appeared likely to recover.

Cured by the Oxygenated Bitters.

From Gen. A. C. Dodge, Delegate in Congress from Iowa, now Minister to Spain.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18, 1850.

Dr. GEO. B. Green,—Dear Sir:—The Oxygenated Bitters with which you were so kind as to furnish me, have had a most salutary effect in my case. I was troubled with Dyspepsia for four years, during which time I tried many remedies, but never met with any so good as your Bitters. I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and I hope, and believe, that all who use the Oxygenated Bitters, will find them as serviceable as I have found them.

With high respect your obd't servant,

A. C. DODGE.

We commend the above certificate to all those who suffer from Dyspepsia, in any of its forms. Try the Oxygenated Bitters, before you say there is no cure for this disease.

Notice to Creditors.

Estate of John T. Houston, deceased.

DORCHESTER CO. ORPHANS' COURT, September 5th, 1859.

ON application of Isaac H. Wright, acting administrator of late of Dorchester co., deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for all creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased's estate, and that he cause the same to be published once in each week, for the space of three successive weeks, in the "Cambridge Democrat," a paper selected by him.

JOHN T. HOUSTON,

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied from the minutes of the proceedings of Dorchester County Orphans' Court, I have hereunto set my name and the seal of my office affixed this 5th day of September, (L.S.) in the year of our Lord, 1859.

LEVIN L. KEENE, Register of Wills, Dorchester county.

In compliance with the above order, this is to give notice that the subscriber, of Dorchester county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Dorchester county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of John T. Houston, late of Dorchester county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on or before the 7th day of March next, or they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of the said estate.

Given under my hand this 5th day of September, 1859. ISAAC H. WRIGHT, Acting Administrator.

Startling, but True!—Survive or Perish.

Holloway's Pills.

THE history of this great remedy is the most wonderful medical revelation that the world has ever known. It is not a history written by one man, or even derived from the experiences of one nation, but consists of a compilation of testimonials from the sick of every country—a record, the like of which has never been adduced in favor of any discovery or invention since time began.

BILIOUS DISORDERS.

In whatever form disease attacks the liver, it is repelled and exterminated by this searching, painless and irresistible curative.

Let the sick whom the faculty have abandoned, resort with confidence to this powerful anti-bilious agent, and a restoration to health and activity will be the unvarying result.

DYSPEPSIA.

The great scourge of this continent yields quickly to a course of these anti-septic Pills, and the digestive organs are restored to their proper tone; no matter in what shape this hydra of disease exhibits itself, this searching and unerring remedy disperses it from the patient's system.

GENERAL DEBILITY and WEAKNESS.

From whatever cause, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, and all other signs of a diseased liver, and other disorganization of the system, vanish under the eradicating influence of this all powerful anti-septic and detergent remedy.

SICKLY FEMALES

should lose no time in trying a few doses of this regulating and renovating remedy; whatever may be their complaint, it can be taken with safety in all periodical and disorganizations; its effect is all but miraculous.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Asthma,	Headaches,
Bowel Complaints,	Indigestion,
Coughs,	Influenza,
Colds,	Inflammation,
Chest Diseases,	Inward Weakness,
Costiveness,	Liver Complaints,
Dyspepsia,	Lowness of Spirits,
Diarrhœa,	Piles,
Dropsy,	Stone and Gravel,
Debility,	Secondary Symptoms,
Fever and Ague,	Veneral Affections,
Female Complaints,	Worms of all kinds.

☞CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words, 'Holloway, New York and London,' are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines, or vending them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States and the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 63 cents and $1 each.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

The States and Union.

THE CHEAPEST PAPER IN THE SOUTH.

Only One Dollar per annum for the Weekly Edition.

ON the first day of October next we will commence the publication of our paper, on new, large and legible type, under the title of THE STATES AND UNION.

"The Union" is a name that is endeared to the editor of The States by many agreeable recollections. He brought it with him to Washington from Nashville, where it was the title of the home organ of Gen. Jackson and Mr. Polk, (with which he was editorially associated) and mainly adopted, at his instance, by the lamented Mr. Ritchie, the then Nestor of the American press, as an appropriate name for the Democratic journal which they jointly established, and the first number of which was issued on Jefferson's birth-day in 1845.—It is a name that was beloved by such sterling patriots and Democrats as Gen. Jackson, Jas. K. Polk, Mr. Ritchie, Gen. Armstrong, and their contemporaries, and a name graven on the hearts of the Democratic party.

When the journal which it represented found that its interests would be benefitted by casting it aside and substituting another, we then resolved that, as it had been thus repudiated, we would take it up, and place it at the head of our own columns, as soon as a suitable period arrived.

The States and Union will be conducted with an exclusive regard to the principles of the State-rights Democracy, will be independent of factions, and unbiased by partial interests. We may add that several of the ablest contributors to the "Union" during the time we were connected with it, have voluntarily promised to write for The States and Union, in behalf of the cause in which we are enlisted, as they did in by-gone years.

It will be furnished to subscribers at the low price of ONE DOLLAR per year.

This is but barely remunerative; but we have placed it thus low in order that it may be within the reach of every Democrat and others who are inclined to read it. It will contain all the leading editorials which appear in the daily editions, as well as a large amount of general intelligence, embracing much valuable information relating to the affairs of government, and matters of interest appertaining to Literature, Agriculture and Commerce. It will also contain all the Government Advertisements and official notices.

The events which will transpire during the next twelve months will make a paper published at the seat of government of more than ordinary interest.

The States and Union, during this period, will contain a perfect history of the proceedings of the NEXT CONGRESS, which will perhaps be of more interest to the nation than any previous Congress which has assembled at Washington since the formation of the government.

It will embrace the whole political canvass for the NEXT PRESIDENCY, up to the day on which the election takes place; in fact, it may be regarded as the CAMPAIGN PAPER, and the cheapest paper of the kind ever issued.

We see no reason why its circulation should not be extended to fifty thousand in a few months. The indications are favorable to such a result from the substantial manifestations which we receive day by day in the large number of subscribers. A remittance may be made for a single copy by carefully wrapping up a GOLD DOLLAR and enclosing it in an envelope.

Postmasters and others, who will take the trouble of getting up a club of ten subscribers, at the rate ONE DOLLAR per year for each subscriber, wil be furnished with a copy of the Weekly States and Union for one year gratis.

Payments in all cases required in advance.

Current money in the different States received in payment for subscriptions.

All letters should be addressed to

JOHN P. HEISS, Washington, D.C.

THE DAILY AND SEMI-WEEKLY EDITIONS. The States and Union will be much enlarged, and issued twice each day, comprising a morning and evening edition, at the following rate:

DAILY:

One copy, per year, ... $ 6 00
Two copies, per year, ... 10 00

SEMI-WEEKLY:

One copy, per year, ... 3 00

The Semi-Weekly States contains all the reading matter of the Daily, including News, Markets, Congressional Proceedings, &c.

To Exchanges.—Our country exchanges, by inserting the above until Nov. 1st, (including this notice,) will receive the Daily edition of the States and Union until the close of the next session of Congress.

Other journals who do not exchange with us by publishing the above until November, will be furnished with the Daily States and Union during the entire session of the next Congress.

ANOTHER EDITION

OF THE

Mastodon Newspaper!

ROBERTS' ILLUMINATED QUADRUPLE CONSTELLATION! The largest sheet of paper ever made and printed, measuring 70x100 inches!—The greatest Typographical Achievement of the Age!

The subscriber announces that he has made such arrangements as will enable him to keep printing a constant supply of his mastodon paper, "The Illuminated Quadruple Constellation"—and all orders from any part of the country, for one or more copies, will be immediately filled on their receipt. All newspaper dealers will keep a supply on hand ready for purchasers. We have Electrotyped the immense eight pages, and therefore can print them as fast as required.

The Press, with one accord, have pronounced The Illuminated Quadruple Constellation the greatest newspaper achievement ever accomplished. Notwithstanding its immense size, it is superbly printed on the very best and strongest white paper ever made or used for a newspaper. It contains eight mammoth pages! thirteen columns to a page—each page four feet in length! In its Imperial folds is embraced more matter than is contained in six different numbers of Harper's Monthly, or fifteen different numbers of the New York Ledger, or any other similar weekly! Four of its immense pages are largely occupied with splendid engravings, portraits of noted personages, &c., &c.

Among the prominent contents may be mentioned the re-publication complete, and without any abridgement whatever, of the celebrated MOON HOAX! as originally published in the New York Sun, in 1835—Two Splendid Novellettes, by J. H. Ingraham, author of "Pillar of Fire," "House of David," "Capt. Kyd," "Lafitte," &c.,—a splendid story by Edward Everett—and one by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr. But it is impossible in an advertisement to give a full detail of its immense contents. It is emphatically a Sheet for the Million—filled with every variety of useful and entertaining reading! In every sense it is the greatest wonder of the age!

Single copies 50 cents—Three copies $1.

☞Postmasters or others sending us $2 for six copies, shall receive one extra for their trouble. Postage on this paper in U. States and Canada 10 cents. By steamers to France, Germany, &c., from New York, 12 cents.

and published by G. G. EVANS, 439 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

"ITALY AND THE WAR OF 1859."—This handsome volume, written by Madame Julie de Marguerittes, and suitably illustrated with Maps and Portraits has just been published by G. G. Evans (the original Gift Book Publisher) of Philadelphia, at the low price of $1.25 and is as well timed as it is well executed.—The design is to show Italy in her PAST and PRESENT, so that the reader may understand on what grounds she bases her expectancy of a glorious Future, with this view the author, who has traveled largely through Europe, and has resided for a considerable period in Milan, with visits to the other great cities of Italy, describes places with which she is acquainted, and personages whom she intimately knew. The statistics of the various States now engaged in hostilities, are given, with biographical sketches of the Sovereigns generally, and Statesmen, whom the war has thrown into prominency. A great deal of personal anecdote is introduced, which very much adds to the spirit and acceptability of the work. The causes of the war are fully and fairly developed, and there is appended an authentic account of the war itself up to the present time, including the official reports of the various battles, and the chivalrous exploits of General Garribaldi, the gallant Guerrilla leader.

We notice that in an introduction to the work, Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary and Foreign Editor of "The Press," (Philadelphia) very warmly eulogizes its designs and execution.

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present, will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of $1.25 for the book, and 21 cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts, with inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application. Address

Lectures for the People.

BY THE

REV. HUGH STOWELL BROWN,

Of the Myrtle Street Chapel, Liverpool.

FIRST SERIES.

WITH a Biographical Introduction by DR. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE. Published under a special arrangement with the Author. One volume, 12mo., cloth, with a Steel Portrait. Price $1.00.

OPINION OF THE ENGLISH PRESS.

"We have read Mr. H. S. Brown's 'Lectures' with much satisfaction. Mr. Brown knows how to speak to 'the people.' He has almost every qualification for it, if we may judge from his printed addresses. There is no maudlin sentimentality about him; but all is healthful as the breeze on the hill. There is no clap-trap; he is both too honest and too earnest for that. There is neither a Pharisaic scorn of vice, nor any effeminate apologizing for it, but a wise Christain man's righteous hatred of it, who knows how to look on those who are sin-degraded as his brethren. He speaks to the people almost as one of themselves, only from a higher level; and, though he uses their daily phrases, yet he does not thereby pander to vulgarity. He has a happy acquaintance with our homely common sense proverbs, and employs them tellingly. There is no affectation of extraordinary 'concern for the poor' or their 'souls;' but there is that real manly concern which can afford to dispense with profession, and to express itself chiefly in calm but brave and sensibly earnest endeavors. The proverb, 'Much cry and little wool,' you may reserve in his case. His true desire to benefit the people is partly shown by the pains with which he collects and prepares the statistics of vice, poverty, disease, &c., in order that his well-marshaled facts may preach to the understanding. The genuineness of his earnestness is evinced by the cheerfulness with which it toils along the highway of common sense. He has no recourse to reckless, undiscriminating charges, and is too strong for exaggeration. Truth is enough for him; would that this were no distinction! While he faithfully touches the worst vices, yet you never feel that the censor himself must have a coarse taste or prurient imagination. These Sunday afternoon lectures are not 'sermons,' nor intended to be. In them he grapples with acknowledged evils; but still, while opening the eyes of the people to the real nature of much of what their daily life too often is, and showing what it might be, he is never ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, nor chargeable with even seeming to let them go away with the impression that anything else, and not the kingdom of heaven, is the first thing to be sought. In Mr. Brown we have a man who, we should judge, can afford to go where any classes of God's creatures are domesticated, for he is strong, and his strength is holy."—Monthly Christian Spectator.
