SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS IN T
SOUTH.—At Bennettsville, S. C., the 10th inst., a father and son, na ed Hitchings, the father an Engli man, were arrested on suspicion being incendiary characters. T populace were about to hang him the nearest tree, but it was decre best to try them by a jury of c zens. In their trunks were fou an invoice from the Hartford Fi arms Company, for $300 worth guns, revolvers, bowie-knives, ca ridges, caps, &c., which had be shipped to Floral College, N. C., b express. Another invoice from t same house for $900 worth of pist and holsters was found.

An abolitionist named Bagley, no Uniontown, Perry county, Ala., w apprehended on the night of the 1 of October, on a public road, an whipped by individuals in disguis for having uttered the following la guage in the presence of a respecta ble citizen:

"If the Union is dissolved and civil war ensues, I will be damned I do not go North, shoulder my mu ket and fight against the South; ther is no one here that I care a dam about any way, except my wife, an I can very conveniently carry he with me. My folks are all North and I will be damned to h—l if I don't fight against the South as long as there is any necessity for it."

Afterwards a public meeting o the citizens of Uniontown was held and the chastisement of Bagley cor dially approved.

Hon. Emerson Etheridge, a mem ber of Congress from Tennessee, re cently made a speech in Indiana, an a writer to the republican press o the North gives its substance as fol lows:

"He exhorted his political friends to cast away all ideas of supporting a 'Bell' ticket in Indiana, and give their united support to Lincoln. He advised that all the efforts of the united opposition should be directed to the overthrow of the democratic party, which could only be done by defeating their candidate in as many States as possible. He said if he lived in Indiana he would vote for Lincoln, but as he lived in a State where his own ticket had a chance, he would vote for Bell. This advice from a man of the position held by Mr. Etheridge in his party has great weight with the members of that party in Indiana."

The Mississippi papers bring accounts of an attempted negro insurrection in Winston county, in that State, plotted by white men, but fortunately discovered and circumvent-ed through the revelations of a negro girl. Thirty or forty negroes were arrested, who, on being examined, told that they had been instigated by white men to poison their white masters and mistresses, and,
on election day, burn the dwellings, take possession of all the firearms they could secure, and organize for a war of extermination against the whites. Great excitement prevailed, and the citizens were forming vigilance committees and armed patrols for protection. One white man, an ambrotypist, named G. Harrington, and one negro, had been hung.

The two Hutchings, (father and son,) whose arrest and trial as Abolition incendiaries at Cheraw, S. C., have already been mentioned, have been convicted and sentenced to be hung yesterday. Additional and crushing evidence, it is said, was adduced to prove their complicity in an insurrectionary plot, and this sealed their doom.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.—The victories of Science, Domestic Remedies. Steam, electric telegraphs, printing, &c., have each had their particular ovation, but the man who has reduced the sphere of disease and alleviated the sufferings of millions of his fellow beings, is, to say the least of it, entitled to our admiration. Holloway has expended a life time in the suppression of sickness throughout the world, and for the effective cures of measles, small-pox, ring-worm whooping-cough, and all disorders affecting childhood, his Pills and Ointment are as familiar as household words, in Europe, Asia, Africa and America. Mothers should never be without a supply.

CLOVE ANODYNE TOOTHACHE DROPS.—This simple and efficacious remedy acts instantly upon the nerve of the tooth, and immediate relief is given. It will not unpleasantly affect the breath like Kreesote, injure the gums or destroy the enamel of the teeth; the numerous cures it has accomplished are well attested, and it has only to become generally known to be as highly appreciated by the public as it has long been by Dentists.

THE PUBLIC BLESSING which is now universally admitted to exist in MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS, is every day demonstrated by their astonishing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicines now before the public. For sale by the proprietor, W. B. ROMAN EYE BALSAM, FOR INFLAMED EYE-LIDS,

AND for the cure of Scrofulous Humours and soreness surrounding or near the Eye. In all diseases of this character it is almost a certain cure. The following extract from a letter just received, refers to one of the many similar cases constantly reported:

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 29th, 1859.

MESSRS. A. B. & D. SANDS,—Dear Sirs:—I have for a number of years been troubled with sore and inflamed eye-lids, which though they never caused me much pain, were very annoying on other accounts. I have tried a number of medicines at different times with not the slightest success. Seeing an advertisement of your Roman Eye Balsam, in spite of my skepticism, I resolved to get some, and at least try it. I am now writing this in the warmest gratitude to inform you (I could almost send you a fifty dollar bill) that a few and only a few, applications have resulted in a complete cure. Respectfully yours,

Each number contains THREE SERMONS, by distinguished Evangelical clergymen, both of this country and Europe, besides usually ten or fifteen columns of other religious reading, including reports of the Fulton Street and other daily Prayer Meetings, and numerous articles by eminent divines. A noted writer of the Scottish Religious Press, says of the "Herald of Truth:" "No paper published in America is more highly recommended by eminent clergymen of every evangelical denomination, and none is so full of instruction and interest to the pastor, the private Christian, the family, the Sunday School Teacher, the theological student, and the Christian Association; and could the paper find its way into every family in the land, its influence for good would be unbounded." Subscribers to the paper get one hundred and fifty sermons, besides over six hundred columns of other reading, for $2.00. AND ONE DESTINED TO CREATE A SENSATION.
JUST PUBLISHED.
The Sunny South
Or the Southerner at Home.
Embracing Five Years' Experience of a NOTHERN GOVERNESS, in the land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton.

Edited by PROFESSOR J. H. INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 526 pages. Price $1.25.

Literary notices of the Press throughout the Country.

THE SUNNY SOUTH—"This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive."—Daily Republic, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE SUNNY SOUTH—"This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors."—Boston Daily Bee.

THE SUNNY SOUTH—"We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly for independent of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year."—Times, Greensboro, N. C.

THE SUNNY SOUTH—"The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all."—Daily News.

THE SUNNY SOUTH—"This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home."—Press.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—"Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular currency; and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm-heart and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers."—The New Yorker.

The [illegible] DAVID;

From the c[illegible] the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the R[illegible]ELLION OF PRINCE ABSALOM. Being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if BY AN EYE WITNESS. By the Rev. J. H. Ingraham, LL. D. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 603 pages. Price $1.25.

"This is the third Volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses was treated of in the "Pillar of Fire," and its great glory under David is treated of in this work, (The Throne of David,) while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation meet their delineation in the "Prince of the House of David." These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful, and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being as such books too ordinarily are, either mawkish, stupid, dogmatic or conceited."—Boston Daily Atlas.

The Pillar of Fire
OR ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.

"This work is designed to sketch the Hebraic history during the bondage in Egypt, the Prophet Moses being the central figure, and is free and striking history of the period, in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history a vast mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interest."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Or Three Years in the Holy City

In a series of letters relating as if by an eye-witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH, from his Baptism in Jordan to his Crucifixion on Calvary, by the Rev. J. H. Ingraham, Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holly Springs, Mississippi. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 472 pages. Price $1 25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer. The descriptions of rites and ceremonials, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the "Pilgrim's Progress."—

Copies of either of the above books, with a handsome Gift, worth from 50 cents to $100, will be sent to any person in the United States, upon receipt of $1 25, and 21 cents to pay postage, by addressing the publisher, Geo. G. Evans, Philadelphia.

CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKEY C.W.

The enterprising proprietor of CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKEY, (the purest Medicinal Agent ever known,) has furnished the community a stimulant, Pure, Healthful and Invigorating, at the same time a mild, delicious beverage. It is calculated to do away with the vile drugged stuff that is palmed off on the community, and which is injurious to body and mind. In addition to the certificates beneath, he has received a Diploma from the STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, and additional testimony from Dr. JACKSON, of Boston, who testifies under oath to its absolute purity.

CERTIFICATES:

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1858.

We have carefully tested the sample of Chestnut Grove Whiskey which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the poisonous substance known as Fusil Oil, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskeys in general use.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3, 1858.

I have analyzed a sample of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, received from Mr. Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whiskey.

JAMES R. CHILTON,
Analytical Chemist.

BOSTON, March 7, 1859.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated.—The fine flavor of this Whiskey is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully,

MARK THESE FACTS!
The Testimony of the Whole World.
Holloway's Ointment.

BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, SORES AND ULCERS.

ALL description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with tenfold fury in a few days. The only rational and succesful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment as salt is forced into meat.

DIPTHERIA, ULCERATED SORE THROAT, AND SCARLET AND OTHER FEVERS.

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate, and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do its work at once. Whoever tries the unguent in the above manner for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

PILES, FISTULAS, STRICTURES.

The above class of complaints will be removed by nightly
