which State convention we recommend shall be held in Baltimore on the 18th instant.

Resolved, That we repudiate the inference drawn by the black republican Legislatures of Pennsylvania and New York—indicated by their resolutions of congratulation to the Governor of Maryland on his refusal to convene the legislative energy remaining State—that Maryland is prepared to act, in conjunction with those States, in the employment of military force to coerce by bloody process the seceding States, and that we recommend local organizations of the citizens of Baltimore who are opposee to such coercion, and are in favor of the constitution of the United States, and the rights of the Southern States.

Resolved, also, That we respectfully recommend to such of our fellow-citizen of the counties of this State as concur in the sentiments of the foregoing resolutions, and who have not already taken action in the premises, to assemble in primary meeting in the several districts in each county, on Tuesday, the 12th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M., to appoint delegates to a county convention, to be held at the county town of each county, at 11 o'clock, A. M., on Thursday, the 14th inst., who shall appoint delegates to the number of double their respective delegations in the Legislature, to meet the State convention proposed to be held in this city on the 18th inst.

The reading of the resolutions was frequently interrupted by thunders of applause and cheering.

The National Crisis.

Extract from Mayor Henry's Message, Phila.

OUR NATIONAL TROUBLES.

Whilst a review of the past year may afford cause of congratulation in the steady advance and continued welfare of Philadelphia, it can not be overlooked that its future progress and prosperity are vitally dependent upon other influence than the industry and enterprise of its citizens.—The interest, affection and pride that it has in the Commonwealth of which it is the metropolis, stretch beyond her limits, and cling around every community and State within the confederacy.

The peril, unlooked for and imminent, that has been permitted to befall the National Union, appeals to every citizen in language so warranted that its reality can hardly be comprehended. At this solemn crisis, there can be no hesitating devotion on the part of those who appreciate and are worthy of the inestimable blessings which are at stake. There will be no faltering loyalty from a city that witnessed the declaration of the nation's independence and the adoption of its federal Constitution.

If the liberal and conciliatory spirit yet subsists, in which, seventy four years ago, the noblest and wisest form of human government was matured, "we, the people of the United States," may perpetuate the Union then framed "to establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

The honorable adjustment of all grievances which have led any of the States to assert their separation from the federal unity should be perfected in the calm temper of patriotism; and to such end no yielding of opinions or of interests should be esteemed a sacrifice, and if those who under God may, by their counsels, determine the destiny of their country, shall stay themselves in the belittling selfish policy of partisans, from the aid of that country in the hour of sorest need, their award must be the lasting curse of a betrayed people.

The troubles which have come upon this nation in the full tide of its prosperity may yet prove merciful dispensations of an all-wise Ruler to teach its people, throughout the length and breadth of its borders, the true value of those free institutions which they have been especially favored, and to knit more closely a Union over which the frenzied hands of fanaticism or treason may not prevail.

ALEXANDER HENRY.

Office of the Mayor of the City of Phila., Jan. 31, 1861.

The Charleston papers are jubilant over the fact that the brig Maria, Capt. Billings has cleared at Franklin, Louisiana, direct for the Republic of South Carolina. This is the first vessel that has been cleared direct for Charleston since the secession of South Carolina, and her papers were made out by the United States collector at that port.

On Thursday the Senate of Virginia passed a bill for staying proceedings on executions, trust deeds, and other demands, in cases of refusal to receive bank notes. The bill amending the charter of the Winchester and Potomac railroad was debated, but no vote taken.

The Secretary of State has declined to admit that the secession authorities in possession of commercial ports, have power to grant clearances or receive payment for duties.—In a letter to Lord Lyons, he has defined the position of this government, and declares that the revenue laws will be regarded as in full operation.

The Louisiana State Convention instructed its delegates to the Montgomery Convention to vote for a provision resisting any attempt to reopen the African slave trade.

The North Carolina Legislature has passed a resolution declaring that in case the sectional difficulties are not speedily reconciled, North Carolina will go with the South. It re-elected the Hon. Thos. Clingman U. S. Senator on Thursday last.

The Kentucky Free Negro Law, which went into operation on the 1st of January, prohibits any free negro coming into the State under severe penalties. Two negroes were arrested at Portland, Ky., last week, under this law, but were discharged by Judge Johnson, it appearing that they came into Kentucky prior to the 1st of January. But on Wednesday evening a free man of color, named Jacob Mitchell, from New Albany, was arrested under the law, and lodged in jail. Under the strict letter of the law, he must go to the State Prison.

The grand jury of New York have made a presentment denouncing the late message of Mayor Wood as a document calculated and aiming to pander to the worst passions of the most dangerous classes in that city, and deserving the reprehension of all honest and law-abiding men.—The message, it will be recollected, suggested that the city should secede from the State.

Newton Tucker, a student at Chambers, Institute, Holly Springs, Miss., was shot and killed by a school mate named Johnson on the 15th ult.—They were going through military drill with a gun they thought unloaded. Johnson pointed the gun at his companion, who gave the command, "ready, aim, fire," and fell dead with a bullet through the heart.

Kansas was admitted into the Union as a State on Wednesday last, by the President signing the bill of Congress for her admission.

Mr. Parrott, the delegate to Congress from Kansas, who had a valuable slave bequeathed to him by his grandmother, in Maryland, emancipated him last week, and sent him as a free man to Ohio.

George M. Gill, Esq., has been appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the city council, as city counselor of Baltimore.

The S. Carolina Legislature has passed a bill to stay collection of all debts due by Carolinians to the citizens of non-slaveholding States.

LIFE'S CHANGES.—It is said that W. Jones, an Indiana farmer for whom Mr. Lincoln split rails thirty years ago, is at Springfield on a visit to his former hired hand.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.—The philosophy of health. Asthma, Bronchitis and affections of the chest.—Disease is frequently the effect of circumstances, neglect, exposure, want of precaution being among its most active causes—trifles, light in themselves, often lead to the most distressing results. Colds and coughs for example, are sometimes unnoticed until they settle on the lungs, and consumption is the consequence; the same is applicable to asthma, bronchitis, and diseases of the respiratory organs. Holloway's Pills and Ointment should be used on the first symptoms of colds and coughs—the Ointment well rubbed into the regions of the throat and chest will give freedom to the breathing and nip in the bud all tendency to inflammation; while the pills will fortify the system against the rigors and inclemencies of the season.

Miscellaneous.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ARDLY REALIZED.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard?" says 'e.—"Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symtomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases.—In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it. Here's the quarther and giv me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Dyspepsia, Diarrhœa, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Cephalic Pills
CURE
Sick Headache.
CURE
Nervous Headache
CURE
All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, give tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

ALL description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with tenfold fury in a few days. The only rational and succesful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment as salt is forced into meat.

DIPTHERIA, ULCERATED SORE THROAT, AND SCARLET AND OTHER FEVERS.

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate, and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do its work at once. Whoever tries the unguent in the above manner for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

PILES, FISTULAS, STRICTURES.

The above class of complaints will be removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment. Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though palpable to the eye. Then again bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only sure treatment for females, cases of cancer in the stomach, or where there may be a general bearing down.

INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH—SORES AND ULCERS.

Blotches, as also swellings, can, with certainty, be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way they only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humour from the system and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy. It will require time with the use of the Pills to ensure a lasting cure.

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS, PARALYSIS AND STIFF JOINTS.

Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require local treatment. Many of the worst cases, of such diseases, will yield in a comparatively short space of time when this Ointment is diligently rubbed into the parts affected, even after every other means have failed. In all serious maladies the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions accompanying each box.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs,	Gout,
Bad Breasts,	Glandular Swellings,
Burns,	Lumbago,
