He give Information of the same to the President of the standing Committee to be communicated to the Rt. Rev. Doctor Onderdonk.

By the of the above resolutions, it is made my duty as a member of the standing Committee to ascertain the number of parishes requiring Episcopal Duties in the District which the Convention has placed under my charge. — I therefore respectfully request that you will immediately inform me of your wishes respecting a Visit from Doctor Onderdonk to St. James's parish. Doct. Onderdonk is expected to visit the parishes on the Western Shore of Maryland during the months of Dec. and January.

Very respectfully Yours
Signed
John G. Blanchard.

Annapolis Nov. 12. 28

The foregoing being read and considered the Vestry determind to decline the Visit of Doc. Onderdonk, and the Register was directed to inform Mr. Blanchard of the same. Whereupon the following letter was written & sent.

St. James's parish Nov. 14th 28.

Revd Sir

Your Letter of the 12th Inst. was this day presented to the Vestry of this parish by their minister and the same being duly considered, they have directed me respectfully to inform you that they decline the acceptance of the Services of the Right Revd Bishop Onderdonk.

I am very respectfully
Yrs
Philip T. Thomas Reg. of
St. James Parish.

The Revd John G. Blanchard
Annapolis.

At a meeting of the Parishioners of St. James's Parish held at the Church of said Parish on the 20th April 1829 for the purpose of appointing a vestry for the year ensuing, The members of the Church proceeded according to Law to vote out four of the old Vestry previous to the nomination of the new.

The Ballots being examined it appeared that

Thomas T. Hall
Henry A. Hall
John W. Compton
Rezin Estep
} were voted out.

The Parishioners then proceeded to the Election of a Vestry when the following persons were declared to be duly elected.

Rezin Estep
Henry A. Hall
John Sellman
John F. Wilson
John Thomas
Alexander T. Murray
Thomas A. Hyde
Joseph Marlow

Whereupon Henry A. Hall tendered his resignation which being accepted Charles Croyall was appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned thereby.

At a full meeting of the Vestry held on the 20th April 1829 John Thomas was unanimously appointed a Delegate to represent this Parish in the Convention of the Protestant E. Church to be held in the City of Baltimore in the ensuing month of June. And the Register instructed to certify the same. At the same time Philip T.
