asthma, bronchitis, wheezing in the chest, and difficult breathing; also the radical cures in neuralgia, tic-doloreux, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatica.

To relieve suffering has been the object of the humane and philanthropic in all ages; before the practice of medicine became a science the sick were publicly exposed in the open air, and every passer by named the remedy he considered most suitable for the complaint. We possess at the present day through the agency of the press a more reliable mode of conveying information to our suffering fellow creatures. Those afflicted with scrofula, cutaneous and eruptive diseases will find in the columns of almost every newspaper and periodical published: certificates and testimonials from those who have been speedily cured of these dreadful complaints by the purifying and powerfully regenerative qualities of Sands' Sarsaparilla.

GIFT-BOOK ESTABLISHMENT

of GEORGE G. EVANS,

439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

"LIBERTY AND UNION, NOW AND FOREVER, ONE AND INSEPARABLE, ONE COUNTRY, ONE CONSTITUTION, ONE DESTINY!"

The UNION TEXT BOOK!

A WORK DEMANDED BY THE TIMES,

Containing Selections from the writings of that unflinching statesman and true patriot,

DANIEL WEBSTER.

Also, the DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE; the CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES; and WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS; with copious indexes.

For the higher classes of Educational Institutions and for home reading. Large 12mo. with a beautiful steel portrait of Webster.—Price $1.00. Accompanied with a HANDSOME GIFT, worth from 50 cents to $100.

"THE UNION TEXT-BOOK" is a volume of powerful interest for the present times. Its subject, its authors, its style, accuracy and fulness entitle it to universal acceptance! Every Farmer should have it! Every Merchant should have it! Every Mechanic should have it! Every Lawyer, Physician, Politician and Patriot should have it! In fact, every body, whether man, woman or child—whether of the North, South, East or West, should send for this—one of the most needed and acceptable books ever submitted to the notice of the American public.

☞The presentation of the Constitutional Text Book to the people of the United States, certainly needs no apology, for it contains the Fundamental Law of Our Country, with an introduction selected from the writings of him who has justly been termed the "Expounder and Defender of the Constitution." In making the selections from the writings of Mr. Webster, great care has been taken to select such parts as may be considered National, and which will tend to strengthen the opinions of the old, and to impress the young with a love of Country, A Veneration for the Constitution, a Respect for the Memory of the Great and good Men who Founded our Republic, and who have passed away, a fervent attachment to the Union, to Liberty, to Peace, to Order and to Law, and will also teach lessons of Wisdom, of Morality and of Religion. As a Class Book, this volume is most valuable, and when used as such, the instructor will readily find in the indexes suggestions for all the questions necessary to be asked, and the answers of the students should always be in the exact words of the text. Address all orders to GEORGE G. EVANS, Publisher, 439 Chestnut st., Philada.

A CARD.

HAVING seen a card, signed by F. J. Henry, and published in the Cambridge Intelligencer of date Feb. 2, 1861, in which persons are warned from receiving, by transfer or otherwise, a note held by me, as acting administrator of Jas. D. Twilley, dec'd., against Mr. Henry, it being represented by Mr. Henry that I had obtained said note by fraud. The circumstances under which I received this note are these:—As acting administrator of James D. Twilley, dec'd., I obtained an order from the Orphans' Court of this county to sell man Daniel at public or private sale. I concluded to sell him at private sale. Having received a letter or note from Joseph R. Stewart that he would take the man Daniel at $50, providing I would give him time, I wrote to him that he could have him by complying with terms of sale. At the same time I sent him a note to fill up and leave it with Thomas W. Anderson for me. When I arrived at Cambridge, I enquired of Mr. Anderson if such a note had been left with him. His answer was no. The same day I met with Mr. Stewart at the Courthouse, when I made a request that he would comply with terms of sale. He remarked he would. I asked what security he could or would give. He replied that he would get Mr. Frank Henry to enter as security. Mr. Henry had me called to his office, where he told me Mr. Stewart was good, to which I replied that it might be so, but I must have security. After quibbling a few minutes Mr. Henry remarked that his bondsmen requested of him not to enter as security, and that he did not like to do it. He then called Mr. Stewart in the back room of his office.—On his return Mr. Henry said that he would give me his note, and Mr. Stewart would enter as security, which I agreed to. Mr. Henry then proceeded to fill up a note at six months for $50, and signed the same. He then proceeded to draw up a receipt for the negro, which I signed. I then took possession of the note. The receipt was still on Mr. Henry's desk. After Mr Henry had signed the note he called Mr. Stewart in the back room. When he came out he said that Mr. Stewart had declined to take the negro—to which I replied that it was too late; that the negro was his. If this should fail to satisfy the public, I desire that they should withhold an opinion until after six months shall expire, when I shall make a demand on Mr. Henry for the payment of the note. On his refusal, I shall use a process of law, when it can be decided whether I have obtained it by fraud or not.

Miscellaneous.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ARDLY REALIZED.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard?" says 'e.—"Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symtomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases.—In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it. Here's the quarther and giv me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Dyspepsia, Diarrhœa, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, give tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

NERVOUS DISORDERS.

WHAT is more fearful than the breaking down of the nervous system? To be excitable or nervous in a small degree is most distressing, for where can a remedy be found? There is one:—drink but little wine, beer, or spirits, or far better, none; take no coffee,—weak tea being preferable; get all the fresh air you can, take three or four Pills every night; eat plenty of solids, avoiding the use of slops; and if these golden rules are followed, you will be happy in mind and strong in body, and forget you have any nerves.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS.

If there is one thing more than another for which these Pills are so famous it is their purifying properties, especially their power of cleansing the blood from all impurities, and removing dangerous and suspended secretions. Universally adopted as the one grand remedy for female complaints, they never fail, never weaken the system, and always bring about what is required.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE.

These feelings which so sadden us, most frequently arise from annoyances or trouble, from obstructed perspiration, or from eating and drinking what is unfit for us, thus disordering the liver and stomach. These organs must be regulated if you wish to be well. The Pills, if taken according to the stomach, whence follow as a natural consequence, a good appetite and a clear head. In the East and West Indies scarcely any other medicine is ever used for these disorders.

DISORDERS OF THE KIDNEYS.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time.—This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

FOR STOMACHS OUT OF ORDER.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity, occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in case of spasm,—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and Stomach.
