MEDICAL AND CHEMICAL REFORM,

ADVICE FREE.

New York Benevolent Infirmary

ESTABLISHED 1856.

And devoted to THE CAUSE OF MEDICAL REFORM; to the DIFFUSION OF MEDICAL KNOWLEDGE FOR THE PREVENTION OF DISEASE, and to the RELIEF OF THOSE SUFFERING AND AFFLICTED WITH CHRONIC AND VIRULENT DISEASES. To this end this infirmary is endowed, to enable the sick and suffering throughout the length and breadth of our land to avoid the Poisonous Drugs, Extortion and Ignorance of Professed Physicians, through which thousands and tens of thousands annually perish.

The following are some of the diseases we cure, not only at the Infirmary but in all parts of our country:

Consumption and Polmonary Complaints, Fevers, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Eye and Ear Disease, Cancers and other Tumors, Jaundice and Liver Complaint, Seminal Weakness, and all diseases of the Urinary and Sexual Organs, from whatever cause or of whatever nature.—Our object will be to give joy to the afflicted by effecting in all cases a speedy cure.

Our rule is to charge nothing for advice and written prescriptions; but will furnish when requested the very best medicine at the lowest rates.

These remedies are prepared in our own Laboratory, under the care of able Chemists, and are the most reliable known to science, including all the recent discoveries.

To all addressing us by letter, containing full account of symptoms and appearances of diseases, age, occupation, &c., we will write a candid reply, with advice and directions for cure. Any fees sent us when sending for advice will be devoted to furnishing medicine for the poor. In all cases medicine can be sent by mail or express if desired. Send for one or more of our works and judge for yourselves.

Also published at the Infirmary, to aid these objects.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY.
THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY.
THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY.

SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL for 1861.
SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL for 1861.
SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL for 1861.

THE coming year inaugurates the third volume of this favorite exponent of SOUTHERN literature. It is a source of no little gratification to us that in announcing the third volume of the JOURNAL, we are enabled to give the best possible reproof to the discouraging predictions of Northern publishers, as well as to the goomy forebodings of even hearty well-wishers in our own section of the country.—Yes, we are proud to say that the brilliant success of the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL has proved the existance of literary talent and enterprise in the SOUTH which fears no rivals:

The friends of SOUTHERN literature have often declared that, could they get a SOUTHERN paper which, in point of intrinsic merit and in price, could compete with Northern weeklies, they would cheerfully support it.—We offer this desideratum; we ask these promises to be redeemed. We ask a comparison with other papers of its class, and are satisfied that the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL will be found equal to the best. Arrangements have been made with the

BEST WRITERS OF THE SOUTH,

and the Publishers have no hesitation in saying that the JOURNAL must become a

WELCOME GUEST IN EVERY SOUTHERN HOME.

For the ensuing year we are enabled to report a host of new and interesting features, comprising among others

BRILLIANT ADDITIONS TO OUR STAFF OF CONTRIBUTORS;

an intensely interesting series of

DETECTIVE STORIES;

important and varied additions to our justly celebrated

BIOGRAPHICAL ESSAYS.

We also trust to have it in our power to announce, early in the Spring, the commencement of a series of

SKETCHES OF EUROPEAN TRAVEL.

With this view we have entered into negotiations with a highly popular author to furnish us with a regular correspondence.

In the January number will commence a story of unprecedented power and beauty and thrilling interest, entitled

ARMINE ADAIR;

or,

Who's the Captain?

A Historical Romance of Frontier Life

BY CAPTAIN R. C. KENDALL.

Besides the varied entertainment offered in the foregoing summary, the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL will present, as heretofore, an unsurpassed collection of SHORT STORIES, (complete in one number)

ADVENTURES, (by flood and field.)
ITEMS OF NEWS, (at home and abroad.)
GOSSIP, (about men and things)
WIT & HUMOR, and POETRY.

We may also add

ANECDOTES IN NATURAL HISTORY.
FACTS FOR THE FARMER AND HOUSEKEEPER.
NEW INVENTIONS.

In a word, a varied miscellany of instructive as well as entertaining matter.

THE SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL is a mammoth eight paged paper, containing forty columns of closely printed reading matter. Each number is handsomely illustrated.

The Southern Family Journal is published weekly and mailed to single subscribers at $2 a year; two copies sent for $3. Terms invariably in advance. Any postmaster sending us eight subscribers at $1.50 will be entitled to one copy free.

Specimen copies sent free when requested.

All communications containing subscriptions or otherwise, should have the name of the writer plainly written, give name of postoffice, county and State. Address

HOME JOURNAL FOR 1861.

New Features, New Series, New Type.

MORRIS & WILLIS, EDITORS.

A NEW series of this widely circulated family newspaper will be commenced on the fifth day of January, 1861—printedon fine paper, and new type. With the January number will begin the publication of a series of beautiful original works of fact and fiction, written expressly for the Home Journal; by the best authors of America. The first of these is from the facile pen of a well known and highly gifted author, and is a powerfully written, startling, mysterious, and deeply interesting story of courtship and married life.—This charming story will be succeeded by others of a similar description, several of which are already in preparation. All the former peculiar features of the paper, which have given it a world wide reputation, will be continued while the several new ones will add infinite variety to its already diversified pages. Among them are a number of fresh, spicy, amusing, original sketches, which smack, and relish of the wit, humor, humor and raciness of the brilliancy, and sparkle of the times.—As heretofore, no labor or expense will be spared to maintain the high reputation of the Home Journal which is every where both at home and abroad, acknowledged to be the most refined and elegant repository of literature and the arts on this side of the sea, and the best and cheapest family newspaper in the world. As no more copies of the new series will be printed than are ordered, those who desire to begin with the commencement of the volume will be able to do so by forwarding their subscriptions without delay.

MARRIAGE GUIDE:

Being a private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married, both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production or prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents, in specie or postage-stamps. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 SPRUCE St., above 4th, Philadelphia, Pa.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE—No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of either of Dr. Young's books, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

Dr. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his Office, No. 416 Spruce St., above Fourth.

L. MILLER'S

HAIR INVIGORATOR

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL compound,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color, without dying, and preventing the Hair from turning gray,

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and stopping it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections of the Scalp.

FOR BEATTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance; and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it give strength and vigor to the roots and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, caused it to yield a fine covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning grey until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fregrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moistened with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article, which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists' and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of his Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair declines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outside wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

Wholesale Depot, 56 Dey St., and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world.

Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity.

I also desire to present to the American Public my

New and Improved Instantaneous LIQUID HAIR DYE, which after years of scientific experimenting I have brought to perfection. It dyes Black or Brown instantly without injury to the Hair or Skin, warranted the best article of the kind in existence.

Price, only 50 cents. Depot, 56 Dey street, New York. jy25-1y

BONNIE ELOISE.

Sweet is the vale where the Mohawk gently glides
On its clear winding way to the sea;
But dearer than all storied streams on earth besides,
Is the bright rolling river to me.

CHO. But sweeter and dearer, yes dearer far than these,
Whose charms when others all fail,
Is my blue eyed bonnie Eloise,
The Belle of the Mohawk vale.

O, sweet are the scenes of my boyhood's sunny hours
That bespangled the gay valley o'er;
And dearer are the friends seen thro' mem'ry's fond tears
That have lived in the days of yore.

CHO. But sweeter and dearer, &c.

O, sweet are the moments when dreaming I roamed
Through the haunts now all mossy and grey;
And dearer than all is my childhood's hallowed home,
That is crumbling now slowly away.

CHO. But sweeter, &c.

ANNIE LAURIE.

It was sung by the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, the night prior to the attack on the Great Redan, in the Crimea. A correspondent who was present on the occasion writes: "Hundreds of voices, in the most exact time and harmony, sang together—

"And for bonnie Anne Laurie,
I'd lay me doune and dee."

The effect was extraordinary; at least I felt it so. I never heard any chorus in an Oratorio rendered with greater solemity The heart of each singer was evidently far over the sea. It was more like a psalm than a ballad; for at such a time, on the eve of a great battle a soldier only thinks of his love and his God."

Maxwelton braes are bonnie,
Where early fa's the dew,
And it's there that Annie Laurie
Gie'd me her promise true;
Gie'd me her promise true;
Which never forgot will be;
And for bonnie Annie Laurie
I'd lay me doune and dee.

Her brow is like the snow drift—
Her throat is like the swan—
Her face it is the fairest
That e'er the sun shone on—
That e'er the sun shone on,
And dark blue is her e'e;
And for bonnie Annie Laurie
I'd lay me doune and dee.

Like dew on the gowan lying
Is the fa' o' her fairy feet,
Like the winds in summer sighing,
Her voice is low and sweet,
Her voice is low and sweet,
And she's a' the world to me;
And for bonnie Annie Laurie
I'd lay me doune and dee.

CONSTITUTION of SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

For convenience of reference, we publish those portions of the constitution of the Confederate States which differ from the constitution of the U. S. The changes made, though seemingly not numerous, are radical, and they create for the Southern Confederacy a line of administrative policy so different from that of our government that we may regard their adoption as conclusive proof that a reunion is impossible:

PREAMBLE.

We the people of the Confederate States, each State acting in its sovereign and independent character, in order to form a permanent federal government, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity—invoking the favor and guidance of Almighty God—do ordain and establish this constitution for the Confederate States of America:

Article 1.—Sec. 2.—1. The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States; and the electors in each State shall be citizens of the Confederate States, and have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature; but no person of foreign birth not a citizen of the Confederate States shall be allowed to vote for any officer, civil or political, State or federal.

5. The House of Representatives shall choose their Speaker and other officers, and shall have the sole power of impeachment, except that any judicial or other federal officer resident and acting solely within the limits of any State, may be impeached by a vote of two-thirds of both branches of the Legislature thereof.

Sec. 3.—1. The Senate of the Confederate States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen
