

Patrolman Frederick N. Fanning was fined $50. and given until December 30th. next to get himself in proper physical condition to return to work at that time to properly perform his duties; the understanding being that Patrolman Fanning shall place himself in the care and under the direction of Dr. J.G.Onnen, who promises to give the officer careful attention.

It was ordered also in this case that Patrolman Fanning be transferred to another district. (See papers filed as Exhibit No. 3705.)

Assignment of Magistrate.

Assignment of Magistrate, as follows, was approved, viz:

Justice Robert H. Carr to the Eastern District Station-house, to sit thereat from 8 to 10 a.m., December 20, 1911, in the place of Justice James T. O'Neill, absent on account of leave. (Additional Justice Paul Johannsen at the Northwestern District Station-house.)

Donations.

Upon the recommendation of the Marshal it was ordered that Detectives Joseph E. Coughlin and George W. Davis be permitted to retain Ten Dollars, donated to them by Miss Emily Weems, 816 St. Paul street, for services in connection with the recovery of stolen ring.

Upon the recommendation of the Marshal it was ordered that Detective Peter B. Bradley be permitted to retain Five Dollars donated to him for services in connection with the recovery of a bag of fur skins.

Survey.

Patrolman Andrew J. Taylor.

Upon the application of the officer himself it was ordered that Patrolman Andrew J. Taylor of the Northern District, who was appointed October 8, 1892, be surveyed by the Police Physicians and reported upon as to whether the officer is or is not permanently incapacitated for