SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That as to all those Counties, Cities and Districts wherein further time is allowed under the first section of this act, the Collectors shall be, and they are hereby required to collect and return to the Treasury at least one half of the Taxes to be levied in said County, City, or District, for the present year, on or before the first day of December next, and the residue thereof on or before the first day of March, eighteen hundred and forty three, so that the present year's Taxes shall be fully collected and paid by said month of March, eighteen hundred and forty three, subject to the penalties imposed by the said original act.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all moneys collected under the provisions of the said Original Act, and this Supplement shall be paid into the Treasury of the Western Shore.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the duty imposed on the Collectors and their deputies, and the Appeal Tax Court of the City of Baltimore, by the forty third section of said act, shall extend to, and be performed by them annually, as to every description of property made subject to taxation by the said act, and which may not have been included in the assessment and levy; and for the purpose of performing said duty, they are hereby clothed with all the powers conferred on the Assessors by said act, and they shall make return of their valuation of all such property as acquired by said act, and which valuation shall be subject to revision as is provided for in cases of returns of Assessors, under the act to which this is a supplement.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the limit by the sixty-first section of the act to which this is a supplement is hereby reduced to fifty dollors, and all property that may be liable to taxation by the said reduction, shall be valued and taxed according to the fifty-third section of the said Original Act, and the sixth section of this supplement.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD-CHERRY

THE CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR

DISEASES OF THE LUNGS,

THE GREAT REMEDY

FOR CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS,

CROUP IN CHILDREN.

WHOOPING COUGH, PAINS OR WEAKNESS OF THE BREAST, CHRONIC COUGHS, and all diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

NATURE'S OWN PRESCRIPTION.

A purely vegetable and highly approved compound preparation of the PRUNUS VIRGINIANA, or "WILD CHERRY BARK"—approved by the College of Pharmacy, recommended by the Medical Faculty, and universally acknowledged the most valuable "Family Medicine" ever discovered.

NO QUACKERY!! NO DECEPTION.

THE Physician may boast of his skill in many diseases—the Quack may puff his wonderful cures, but of all the remedies ever discovered for diseases of the Pulmonary Organs, it is universally admitted nothing has ever proved as successful as that unrivalled medicine, DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which has effected some of the most astonishing cures ever recorded in the history of medicine.

Such indeed are the astonishing healing and restorative properties of this BALSAM, that even in the advanced stages of CONSUMPTION, and in Liver Complaints, diseases which have baffled the skill of the most distinguished physicians, when patients have suffered with the most distressing Cough, great difficulty in breathing, Night Sweats, Bleeding of the Lungs, &c. after the most esteemed remedies of our Pharmacopias have failed, this invaluable remedy has not only given surprising relief but actually effected cures, after all hopes of a recovery had been entirely despaired of.

Besides its surprising efficacy in these formidable complaints, it has proved a very superior remedy for diseases of children, such as CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, &c., and those disorders that prevail so extensively throughout the winter season, such as

COUGHS & COLDS

PLEURISY, INFLUENZA, and PAINS IN THE BREAST, proceeding from NEGLECTED COLDS, it stands unrivalled.

READ WHAT IT HAS DONE.

A WONDERFUL RECOVERY!—Mrs. S. E. Austin, the subject of these remarks, was attacked with this disease in the fall of 1838, originating from a violent cold which settled upon her lungs. Various remedies were resorted to—the most skilful physicians were consulted—yet step by step that fearful disease CONSUMPTION, began to prey upon her. She became subject to violent fits of coughing, expectorated large quantities of matter, and was evidently sinking very fast. In this distressing situation, after all the various remedies had been tried in vain, and when naught but the grave seemed to afford her any prospect of relief, this invaluable BALSAM restored her to health; and now, in the place of that emaciated form, withering to decay, she is seen mingling in society, in better health and spirits than she has enjoyed for years. ☞See description of this interesting case in Dr. Wistar's Treatise on Consumption.

DISINTERESTED TESTIMONY.—Having witnessed the surprising efficacy of Dr. Wistar's preparation of Wild Cherry, in the case of Mrs. Austin, I cheerfully recommend it as a valuable remedy, and acknowledge his statement true and correct.

J. H. WALTERS, M. D.

A SURPRISING CURE.—Mrs. Martha Wilson, a poor but highly respectable member of the Methodist Church, was also afflicted with Consumption in its worst forms, and considered past recovery by all her friends. A bottle of this Balsam was presented to her, which relieved her immediately. This circumstance being made known to the members of the church, they purchased several bottles for her, which relieved her entirely. The same Society have purchased over FORTY bottles, for persons in indigent circumstances, and positively assert it has not been used in a single instance where it has not given surprising relief.

☞We, the undersigned, members of the Derbin Benevolent Society of the Methodist church, having examined the above statement of Mrs Wilson's case, hereby certify it is in all respects true, and earnestly recommend Dr Wistar's remedy to all who are afflicted.

GEORGE MILLER, MARY GARDNER,
THOMAS COOMBS, ELIZABETH JACOBS.

I have ever taken before. Send by the stage as soon as possible, and oblige thy friend.

JACOB HOLLOWAY.

Bristol, September 8, 1841.

Dear Doctor,

Hearing so many people talk about the wonderful cures your Balsam of Wild Cherry has made in Consumption, I sent to one of your Agents the other day for a bottle, and have found it to relieve me so much, that I want three bottles more sent soon, as I believe it will cure me too. I have used a great many balsams of different kinds, have tried Jayne's Expectorant and other medicines besides, but nothing has ever done me such good as yours has. Send by the steamboat Bolivar. Yours truly,

WILLIAM THOMAS.

Cambridge, Md. Nov. 1841.

I have made use of the Balsam of Wild Cherry in confirmed cases of cough, pain in the side, and spitting of blood, attended with other difficulties, and find it to be the most efficacious remedy I have ever yet used, and feel no hesitancy in recommending it to the public. Signed, GEORGE JACKINS.

PAINS IN THE BREAST, DEBILITY, WEAKNESS AND COUGH.

The Rev. Dr. Dunlap has addressed us a letter in which he says two of his daughters had suffered severely with an obstinate cough, frequent pains in the breast, &c., and appeared to be going into a rapid decline. By the use of a few bottles of this medicine, they have entirely recovered and now enjoy excellent health.

ASTHMA CURED.—Mr. Jacob Snyder has authorized us to say he was afflicted with this annoying complaint for several years, and had tried every thing in vain. He was subject to constant wheezing, a troublesome Cough, Spitting of Phlegm, Pain in the Chest, and sometimes in the region of the heart, and nothing else ever gave him relief.

CHRONIC COUGH.—Mr. Isaac Rogers was also afflicted with an obstinate Cough, originating from a disease of the Lungs and Chest, and never found any thing to give him relief but this Balsam.

Such in fact is the nature and simplicity of this medicine, and so extraordinary have been many of the cures it has performed, that it has already attained the highest reputation, and although scarce two years have elapsed since it was first made public, we can proudly say, its fame has spread in every direction, and it is rapidly acquiring a celebrity unequalled by any medicine ever offered to public notice.

DRUGGISTS & DEALERS

In every section of the country, will find this medicine an important and valuable addition to their stock, and should

ALWAYS KEEP IT ON HAND,

As it is not in our power to place it within the reach of all those afflicted, and there are doubtless thousands suffering who would resort to it for relief if they could obtain it conveniently.

☞Be particular when you purchase, to ask for DR WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, as there is an article called the 'SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY,' advertised, which is entirely a different medicine.

Prepared, wholesale, and retail, by WILLIAMS & Co., Chemists, No. 33, South Fourth stteet, Philadelphia. Price $1 00 a bottle.

AMERICAN LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE.

Godey's Lady's Book, for 1842.

The most splendid and valuable monthly periodical ever Published. The only magazine devoted to Ladies, and conducted by members of their own sex, composed entirely of Original Articles, by the most eminent writers of the age; and embellished with a larger number and greater variety of costly, elegant, and attractive Pictorial Illustrations, than any similar publication.

EDITED BY

Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Morton M'Michael,
Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, L. A. Godey.

CONTRIBUTORS TO EACH NUMBER.

Miss C. M. Sedgwick, N. P. Willis,
Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz,
Mrs. E. C. Embury, T. S Arthur,
Theodore S. Fay, Mrs. E. P. Ellet.

In announcing to his numerous patrons and the public at large his arrangements for the year 1842, the proprietor of Godey's Lady's Book takes accasion to acknowledge the unparalleled and triumphant success of his Magazine, which has now reached the extraordinary number of being a larger edition than has ever been printed of any other work of any description in America. This success he is aware has been attained by the vast superiority which the Lady's Book has always maintained over the various contemporary magazines which have attempted to rival its merits, a superiority which he is still determined to preserve, by keeping it, in all its departments, Literary, Intellectual and Moral, as well as Pictorial, Emblematic, Artistic, and Mechanical.

That this is no idle boast, he appeals to the experience of the past twelve years, in all which time he has made no promise to the public which he has not fully performed, nor undertaken any thing which his means did not enable him to accomplish to the utter most.

Entering, as he is about to do, on the 24th Volume of the Lady's Book, with increased energy and accumulated resources; with an ample knowledge of the business in which he is engaged, acquired by long years of unremitted application; with a subscription list unparalled in the annals of literature; with numerous facilities not possessed by any other publisher; with well-digested and wide-extended arrangements; and above all, with a stedfast purpose of maintaining the lofty elevation his work has reached, the proprietor has not hesitated to incur expenses, which under other circumstances might well prove startling; but by means of which he will be enabled to make the Lady's Book the brightest, the rarest, the most attractive, and the most valuable periodical, intrinsically, ever offered to the American public.

Literary Department.

It has ever been the aim of the proprietor to impart to the Lady's Book a high literary and moral tone; and for this purpose he has, without regard to cost, procured the aid of the most eminent writers, and for several years past, has committed its editorial supervision to Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, and Miss E. Leslie, ladies, of whom not only their own sex, but the whole country, have reason to be proud. In this respect, the Lady's Book enjoys a decided advantage over all other publications, as it is the only work devoted to ladies, which ladies direct—an advantage which must be obvious to every parent, husband, brother, and friend, as well as to every lady who properly appreciates the dignity and importance of her sex. To add to its superiority in this particular, the proprietor has secured, in addition to the ladies already mentioned, the invaluable services of Miss C. M. Sedgwick, author of Redwood, Clarence, Letters from England, &c. a writer, whose efforts in raising the intellectual standard of her sex, and vindicating the true rights of woman, not less than her richly-gifted intellect and varied information, have gained her a reputation as wide as it will be enduring. He has also made arrangements, by which, besides regular contributions from

Mrs. E. C. Embury, Mrs. F. S. Oogood, Mrs. M. H. Parsons, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, Miss Dupuy, Mrs. Volney E. Howard, Miss E. Allen, Mrs. S. E. Farley, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. H. Beecher Stowe, Mrs. Sebah Smith, Mrs. J. Thayer, Mrs. C. L. Hentz, Mrs. E. C. Stedman, Miss Meeta M. Duncan, Mrs M. St. Leon Loud, Mrs. C. H. W. Esling, Miss M. B. Snow, Kate Franklin, he will be enabled to furnish occasional articles from Maria Edgeworth, Mary Russell Mitford, Mrs. Cornwell Baron Wilson, Mrs. S. C. Hall, Mrs. Hofland, Mary Howitt, and other English lady-writers of distinction some of whom have already published in the Lady's Book the original contributions they have ever made to American literature. Nor has he omitted to procure the assistance of emiuent writers of the opposite sex. Aware of the universal and well deserved popularity of N. P. Willis, Esq., and confieent that the productions of his graceful and elegant pen will be highly acceptable to the readers of the Lady's Book, the proprietor has entered into an arrangement, by which he will be able to give in each number of his work an exclusive article from that gentleman; and he has also retained all of the contributions whose writings have heretofore given such ample satisfaction, including

Eppes Sargent, W. G. Simms, Professor Ingraham, Professor Dimitry, Professor Frost, Professor Walter, Park Benjamin, R. S. Mackenzie, LL. D., T. S. Arthur, H. W. Herbert, Jos. C. Neal, Hon. Robt. T. Conrad, Dr. J. K. Mitchell, Geo, P. Morris, Joseph R. Chandler, Robt. Morris, Plinny Earle, M. D., N. C. Brooks, A. M., E. Holden, A. M'Makin, L. Fitzgerald Tasistro, Rufus Dawes, E. G. Squier, J. M' Lellan, Jr., Jas. Aldrich.

With such aid, it is not too much to say, that the Literary Department of the Lady's Book will surpass any thing that has ever been or can be attempted.

Ornamental Department.

It is a source of no little pride to the proprietor of the Lady's Book, that he first introduced into this country the plan of furnishing, along with a monthly periodical of elegant literature, embellishments of an attractive and costly cearacter. The first steel engravings accompany such a work were given by him, that the first mezzotint engraving was given by him; the first patterns of lace work and embroidery were given by him; the first colored plates of fashion were given by him; the first music was given by him.—These are things to which he would not refer, if some of those who have essayed to follow in his footsteps, not content with imitating all his designs, even to the form of his book, the size of his type, and the color of his cover, had not foolishly put forward claims to originality, and attempted to found a right to an exclusive merit on doing that which they have borrowed from his example. But what he has done heretofore in the way of embellishment to his Book, though it far exceeded any effort of those who strove to copy his movements, cannot compare with what he now means to do. His arrangements for this department of his work have been projected on the most liberal scale of expenditure, involving an extent of outlay such as has never before been dreamed of in any periodical, European or American. As an evidence of his intention, he now states that each number of the Lady's Book for the ensuing year, will contain; at least,

Three Splendid Engravings;

embracing in the series every possible variety of subject: Historical, Landscape, Picturesque, Portraiture, Imaginative, and Emblematical, and executed in every possible variety of the art; Mezzotint, Line and Mezzotint, Stipple, Medallion, and that most chaste and expressive manner, the line and dot combined, which has given such world-wide celebrity to the works of modern artists.

Splendidlp colored Plates of the Fashions, will also be given every month, containing at least four female figures, and embodying in every instance the latest costumes, received directly from a correspondent at Paris.

In order to give the greatest attractiveness to the subjects of his embellishments, the proprietor has given orders to various American Painters of established reputation, who are now engaged in preparing expressly for the Lady's Book.

Numerous Original Pictures.

on National and Historical events, some of which are nearly completed, and will soon be in the hands of the engraver. Among the painters thus engaged he may enumerate

J. G. Chapman, Painter of the National Picture of the Baptism of Pocahontas, P. F. Rothermel, S. S. Osgood, of Boston, J. P. Frankensteih, I. Williams &c. &c.,

He has also established a correspondence in London, through which he will receive early proof impressions of the finest prints executed in that metropolis, and will thus be constantly supplied with an immense variety from which to make suitable selections.

PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS OF SHAKSPEARE;

two of which, Anne Page and Master Slender, by Leslie, and Katherine and Petruchio, by Cateermole, are now nearly ready. Among the subjects at present in preparation for the Lady's Book, may be mentioned Morning Devotion, & Evening Devotion, two superb pictures of domestic piety; The effects of Industry, and the Effects of Idleness,—admirable illustrations of great moral truths; The Old Soldier & his Family, a beautiful transcript of patriotic feelings; several of Sir David Wilkie's most valued compositions; Departing for the Fair, and Returning from Market,—charming specimens of rural life; The village Amanuensis, Fortune Telling. The Secret Discovered, The Maiden's Chamber, The Elopement of Bianca Capella, &c., &c., and Edwin Landseer's last and greatest production, Youthful Innocence, in which the only copy in this country is that which belong to the proprietor.

Determined to gratify every variety of taste, the proprietor has also made arrangements for a series of the most in this country, several of which are already engraved, and will be given to his subscribers, as soon as a sufficient number of impressions can be taken to supply his immense edition. Besides the services H. S. Sadd, of New York, who has now in hand a number of plates, the proprietor has secured the invalvable aid of Mr. Humphreys, of London; who is universally conceded to stand in the foremost rank of English Engravers, and whose splendid efforts in Mezzotint have commanded the admiration of the most distinguished amateurs and critics. This eminent artist is now engaged in preparing expressly for the Lady's Book, a number of Mezotint Pictures, which the proprietor pledges himself will be of an unsurpassed excellence; and of the most interesting and attractive subjects. To guard against all possibility of difficulty hereafter, he has likewise ordered from England, a Complete MEZZOTINT Establishment, and immediately on its arrival, Mr. Wm. E. Tucker, of this city, will commence operations, in that department of art.

In order to procure these various embellishments in season, the proprietor has made permanent arrangements with the following eminent engravers, all of whom are now engaged in executing steel plates for the Lady's Book.

PROSPECTUS OF

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK!

OR MAGAZINE OF

USEFUL AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE,

There are many periodical publications, yet one more is wanted. The friends of general Education—the advocates of the diffuston of Useful Knowledge—have long desired to see the commencement of

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE,

Devoted to the Instruction & Entertainment of Young Persons of Both Sexes; conducted with a sole view to their improvement in written, not in the colloqual language which is addressed to very young children, but with such attention to the style as shall render it worthy the notice of those who are acquiring the art of Composition or forming their Literary taste; and filled with such various, original, and valuable matter as shall render the volumes when bound up, worthy a place in the Family or School Library.

It is the purpose of the proprietor of THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK to furnish such a Magazine. He has provided ample means for the accomplishment of his object; and he pledges himself to the friends of liberal and judicious education throughout the United States that he will produce a work which shall be in every respect worthy of their attention and patronage.

There is a period in the progress from early childhood to maturity, and that by no means a short one, during which the expanding minds of the young are seeking in every direction for Useful Knowledge, as well as Intellectual Entertainment. Every book, paper or pamphlet which promises either, is eagerly read, and every circle or society of a literary or scientific cast is earnestly sought. During this period the young person is not satisfied with that kind of instruction which is given to mere children. Something more elevated—something nearer the studies and pursuits of active life is required. A friend always at hand who could point out the proper studies to be pursued, the true methods of developement in Literature & Science, the best course of Reading, the surest processes of Investigation, the most recent authorities in experimental, and the most learned in Historical research—a friend who could relieve the dryness of abstract truth by a familiar anecdote, narrative or illustration—who could scatter a few roses of literature in the rugged paths of severe science, would indeed be invaluable.

Such a friend not one Youth in a thousand, of either sex, can have. There is no tolerable substitute to be found in any book—we might say in any library. It is proposed in some measure to supply the want of such afriend in THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK.

One of the leading objects of the work will be to point out and illustrate by practical examples the proper methods of self instruction in the various departments of Literature and Art, to suggest appropriate departments of study and inquiry, to prescribe courses of Reading, and to indicate the progress which may be made in the Sciences, so far as the limits of the work will allow.

The forms into which the different branches of instruction and entertainment will be thrown, will be regulated by the particular object in view at the time, and the class of readers always addressed.

☞A TRULY NATIONAL SPIRIT.☜

The inculcation of the duties which every American scholar owes to his country, and the exhibition of the capabilities of our early History, our Traditions, our Customs & Scenery, for supplying all the materials of a copious and brilliant literature, will be constant objects of attention, and will form frequent topics of discussion example, and illustration.

In order to insure the competent execution of each department of the work, the aid of experienced writers already favorably known to the public, has been secured, and the editorial care of the whole is committed to

whose reputation as a practical teacher, and a writer in the departments of education and polite literature, will form a sufficient guarantee, not only for the elegant and tasteful execution of the work, so far as language, style, and embellishment are concerned, but for its elevated moral and intellectual character, and for its invariable direction towards the improvement of its youthful readers in science, literature, and the conduct of life

☞THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BOOK will be published in MONTLY numbers, each to contain 36 pages, embellished with numerous Engravings, and neatly done up in an Ornamental Cover. It will be printed on white paper of the first quality, from a new and elegant type, cast expressly for it.
