A VALUABLE WOOD LOT FOR SALE.

BY virtue of competent authority I will sell at private sale a valuable Wood Lot, near Cambridge. The said lot is situated about one mile from town immediately on the county road leading to Church Creek and adjoining the Brick-Kiln Lot owned by James A. Stewart, Esq. and contains 23 acres. From the close proximity of this lot to Cambridge and also from the quantity of fire wood upon it, it is probable the most desirable lot that can be brought into market. The terms will be made accommodating.

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

I hereby notify all whom it may concern, that after the first day of January 1844, interest will be charged upon all accounts of county charge, direct tax, or officer's fees due for the year 1843. Persons having money by them would save the interest by promptly paying their accounts. I have heretofore urged upon the people the propriety and even necessity of an early settlement of their taxes. Upon this subject I have no discretion. The law has prescribed the days that I must settle with the Treasurer of Maryland, and if I fail to comply with the terms of the law, my bond may be put in suit. I regret very much that I have been disappointed in the effects of the different appeals I have made to the people upon this subject, and hope that they will no longer delay in calling promptly upon me, & settling their taxes. Such a course would afford more great satisfaction, and prevent a deal of trouble both to themselves & to me. Bear it always in mind that the taxes must be paid, and that if they are not paid voluntarily, the strong arm of the law will have to coerce payment.

Notice.

THE late Sheriff & Collector, John H. Hodson, Esq., having transferred to my books all the accounts due him in Cambridge District, I hereby give notice that I shall proceed without delay to close up his business in said district. All those indebted to him for officers fees, county charges, or direct taxes, having frequently been requested to settle the same, are now informed that the time for all indulgence is past and that those who do not come forward and settle without any further notice will find themselves very disagreeably situated. HANCE'S SARSAPARILLA, VEGETABLE on BLOOD PILLS, for the promotion of Health and the purification of the Blood.

WHAT IS LIFE?—THE BLOOD.

When the blood becomes impure or imperfectly circulated, it gives rise to the following diseases.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

When the blood (in an impure state,) in traversing the body deposites its impurities on the liver, it gives rise to liver complaint, the principal symptoms of which are a bilious hue of the skin,—with dull, heavy, and wandering pains about the right side, shoulder & back; by a loss of appetite, indigestion, occasional fevers, difficulty of breathing, extreme debility, and many times with a cough, resembling consumption. This disease has long been amongst the most uncertain objects of medical skill, and, being nearly allied to pulmonary consumption, is very difficult of cure; owing also to the uncertainty which attends the use of medicines in this disease, it is generally allowed to take its own course unmolested. A few boxes of

taken to purify the blood and purge away the impurities, will in all cases give immediate relief.

CUTANEOUS DISEASES,

By the term is meant diseases of the skin, which always arise from some derangement of the blood, thereby causing eruptions, pimples, blotches, and excessive heat of the blood, accompanied by a violent itching of the skin.

HANCE'S SARSAPARILLA PILLS,

If taken according to the directions for purifying the blood, will effect a cure in a very short time.

COLLECTORS NOTICE.

THE undersigned takes this method of informing the public that he has his books now made out for the present year 1844, containing County charge, Direct tax and officer's fees. It is generally known that I have large demands to meet, and those demands will be expected of me punctually. It would be confering a favor on me by coming forward and settling immediately. There is a number of accounts on my books for the year 1843, yet unsettled. I have heretofore urged upon the people the propriety and even the necessity of an early settlement. I regret very much that I have been disappointed in the effects of the different appeals I have made to the people upon this subject, and hope they will no longer delay; to have to press those accounts that are due me would be repugnant to my wishes, and at the same time would increase the debt of the payer. I am in hopes that the above notice will be attended by all of those who pay taxes or have contracted debts with the Register, or Clerk of the county or any of the Lawyers.

A FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale the farm in Town Point neck, on which Luther Bain now resides. This farm is well located on Fishing creek and contains about 137 acres of land. The buildings are pretty good, and the farm itself is capable of a very high state of improvement at small cost; about one half of the cleared land (say 50 acres) is already limed, and there are abundant resources of bank shells and other means of improvement on the premises, and with a proper system of cultivation and a small expenditure of labour, it could, in a short time, be made very productive, and would yield a handsome interest on the investment.—The terms will be made easy, and a long credit, if desired, will be given upon the purchase money, provided the interest is punctually paid. Mr. Bain will shew the premises to any person wishing to view them, and for terms apply to the subscriber, or in his abscence to N. L. Goldsborough Esq., in Cambridge.

This property has been undergoing a general repair, and with very little more expence can be put in a good condition for the reception of a family of any ordinary size. The house is large and commodious, and to any person wishing to reside convenient to the capital of the county, where every luxury and convenience calculated to render life desirable may be obtained, there is no place in our county to its size offers greater inducements—and to gentlemen desirous of educating their children under their immediate inspection, the advantages are very great; there being several Male and Female Schools in the town of first reputation. The terms will be one-fourth cash, the balance in two equal instalments of one and two years, bearing interest from date, with approved security.

Five copies of the Saturday Courier, and 1 copy of Frost's new Pictorial History of America, a $5 book,	10

In fact, whatever offer is made, by any other Family Journal, at all approaching in worth, beauty, or pretensions, to the Saturday Courier, will be furnished by us.

The Courier has become so well and favorably known through a triumphantly popular course of fourteen years, that it would be superfluous to say much on that subject here. We may remark, however, that to the industry, talent, and enterprise, which have for years kept this paper a bright exemplar for all its imitators, will constantly be added the productions of every available writer, and continued judicious and liberal expenditures will continually be made, as well in the Literary as the Typographical departments. Our means will always enable us to be in advance of all others, and we shall be so.

HISTORIES OF MODERN REPUBLICS.—a new and important announcement for the coming year, in addition to our already numerous popular features, will be a series of CONDENSED HISTORIES OF MODERN REPUBLICS, by a fresh and vigerous writer, who will impart a world of important instruction to the rising generation, in this new and entertaining Romance of History.

BIOGRAPHIES AND NOTICES OF DISTINGUISHED LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC MEN.—Among the interesting essays and sketches of value, which we shall continue to present in the Courier, will be a full and interesting account of the rise, progress, and present elevated standing of ALL DISTINGUISHED MEN, of the Past and Present, (at home or abroad,) in all departments of Art, Science, Literature, Statesmanship, Poetry, Mechanics, Painting, Agriculture, Printing, Merchandize, etc.

This will be a very interesting feature for the Young. It will be a department of the Courier, which it has ever been our aim, to render of inestimable value to those for whom we feel so deep an interest as we do for the Young Men of our great and growing Country. The Lives of Distinguished Men are of much value to those who are yet forming their own characters, for the purpose of enacting their parts, CORRECTLY, on the Great Stage of Human Life.

Indeed, we hope that this Department of the Courier will be worth more (each year) to every family, who have sons and daughters to be reared, than five times the amount we ask for a year's subscription to the Saturday Courier.

INCIDENTS, HISTORIES, SCENES, BATTLE GROUNDS, &c., OF THE AMERICAN ALL OTHER REVOLUTIONS.—Under this head, (which is, by the way, not at all new in the Courier,) we shall hereafter give graphic and interesting accounts (occasionally beautifully illustrated) of the thrilling incidents, so profusely studded through the deeply important history of the American Revolution, and of all other revolutions that we may regard of the least interest of value to the readers of THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER. This will be of deep consequence, also, to every member of you family of the American republic, who may choose to do themselves and us the favor of securing, regularly the visits of the Courier at their Family Fireside.

POPULAR TOPOGRAPHY.—to gratify the growing appetite for a better knowledge of the important features of our great and glorious country, our past exertions shall be redoubled in future to present vivid pictures of American cities, towns, mountains, lakes, rivers, caves, scenery, ect. ect.

OUR ORIGINAL DOMESTIC TALES, ESSAYS, POEMS &c. will continue regularly to be furnished by the best minds and pens in the country.—These chaste productions are acknowledged to be the best, for useful instruction at the family fireside, that appear in any periodical.

OUR ENGRAVINGS comprise subjects in all branches of Art and Nature, suitable for the family circle, and appear in rapid succession.

OUR TRAVELLER is constantly traversing the world, in search of the wonderful and instructive.

OUR AGRICULTURIST occupies weekly an important space, with all matters of interest for the Noble Tillers of the Soil.

OUR EUROPEAN CORRESPONDENTS, in Liverpool, London, Ireland, the East, &c., keep us regularly advised of all subjects of special interest.

OUR MARKET, AND PRICES CURRENT, embrace all the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money, and Lands: and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our Prices Current of inestimable value to the traveller, Farmer, and all Business Classes whatever.

Cheapness, Elegance and Excellance Combined!

Before subscribing to a Periodical for 1845, read the following Prospectus of the Third Volume of ARTHUR'S LADIES' MAGAZINE.

PRICE ONLY $2.00 PER ANNUM,

48 Pages Reading Matter, besides two elegant Steel Plates, in each number!

The Publishers, in sending forth their Prospectus for the third volume of their Magazine, which is exclusively and permanently under the editorial control of T. S. ARTHUR, believe that they can offer to the public most substantial claims to patronage. The first and second volumes have been acknowledged on all hands to be equal, and, in many respects, superior, in character, strength, interest and attractiveness, to any of the magazines issued. The aim of the Editor is a high one. He repudiates the long prevalent system of basing his work upon the reputation of contributors, whose articles, no matter what they have done, are, in too many instances, below mediocrity.

Nothing gains admission into the pages of this Magazine, which is not excellent in itself. The source from which an article comes is secondary—its merits always primary. Such a rule, strictly carried out, must give character to any work. It has given "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" a character already acknowledged in all respectable quarters where it has been received.

Among the inexhaustable sources that open up to the hands of a literary caterer, GERMAN and FRENCH LITERATURE offer a wide field for selection. Into this region, with an admirable corps of translators, we are steadily penetrating, astonished at every step by the riches we meet. Especially is this the case in Literature. Already we have given some splendid articles from the German, brim full of pure truths, and forcible illustrations of the power of goodness. "Silent Love," "The Governor and his Successors," "The Unknown Patient," "The Russian Prince," "The Privy Counsellor," &c. &c. all who have read will remember with delight.

From the French we have also given many first rate articles. "The Perplexed Lovers," from Madame de Genlis, also, the "Lesson of Misfortune," and "The Error of a Good Father," from Marmontel, with fine tales from DUMAS, LACROIX, NODIER, BALZAC, and other authors of celebrity.

In selecting from the French, our translators are guided by a strict regard to purity and excellence. None know better than they do, how much that is objectionable abounds in the light literature of this people. But, flowing along by the side of this impure current, is another, as lucid and clear as crystal. From this they dip up the bright waters and present them to our lips.

At this fountain, we shall continue to let our readers drink. But, in doing so, we shall not neglect the EXCELLENCIES OF OUR OWN NATIVE LITERATURE. This would be the worst of folly. Yet in doing this, we shall make no parade of names. The public are getting to understand pretty clearly how much this is worth, and to discover that excellence is not always to be found in the fugitive productions of writers who have done well in books. Our country is teeming with young genius, too often overshadowed and hidden by the successful, who possess not half their intrinsic worth, and whose writings exert not half so healthy an influence. They are crowded from the path in which they are fitted to walk, and their merits kept out of sight by a few who have gained the public ear and eye, and who are kept before the public, not so much on account of the superior excellence of what they are giving forth, as on account of what they have done.

To merit, wherever we find it, we will give the right hand of fellowship. We would not accept a poor article from the most celebrated writer in the country; but a good one, let it come from where it will, shall find a welcome. In all sources, at home and abroad, we shall seek the good, the true and the beautiful.

For some time, and with too much justness in the allegation, our Magazines have been charged with being too light and trashy. This fault we have from the first steadily avoided. "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE" will continue to sustain a high character for excellence in all its departments. Something more than mere love tales will be given. Its stories, while full of deep and absorbing interest, or, sparkling with wit and happy feelings, will have in them a soul—A LIVING SOUL of goodness and truth. Reviews, essays and sketches, with poetry that shall be truly called such, will be blended with them in just proportion. Thus much in regard to the literary department of our Magazine. Another matter claims our attention—that of

PICTORIAL EMBELLISHMENTS.

Custom and taste have rendered them indispensible in a literary work like ours. We shall not stand to argue the matter with Custom and Taste, but proceed to open up our intentions on this head. First, then, we have determined to present the subscribers to "ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE," during the year, with a novelty, of a highly attractive character, no less than a series of engraved on steel in a highly finished style This Shakspeare Gallery of Beauty will present embodied to the eye, some of the noble bard's most beautiful creations of the mind, as well as one or two celebrated characters in history, around whom his magic pen has thrown a new charm. What lover of the Poet's immortal creations, will not be eager to secure this splendid series of Engravings? Not one, surely. Every possessor of a copy of Shakspeare, and whose library does not contain his works? will have, at a mere nominal cost, six exquisite illustrations, not to be obtained in any other way. This is certainly a great desideratum. But, besides these beauties from Shakspeare, we are making arrangements to procure a series of female figures, far surpassing, in loveliness of form and face, and exquisite finish, any thing that has yet appeared in any American magazine.

CELEBRATED VIEWS, in this and other countries, will also be a leading feature in our work. For the January number we shall give a highly wrought view of the BRIDGE OF DOON, over which Tam O'Shanter fled in such hot haste from the kirk and the witches. This splendid steel plate will accompany the first of our Shakspeare beauties, and will make that number of our work a highly attractive one. No less so will be that for February. Nor shall there be any falling off in the style of embellishment, or in the character of the literary contents of the work. From the first, we have aimed at a gradual improvement. We do not issue one or two good numbers, and then, after our list of subscribers is filled up fall off. But we endeavor to make every number better than the one that preceded it. Excellence, as we have before said, is our aim. But, besides our Shakspeare Gallery, our Gallery of Female Beauty, our Celebrated Views, we shall introduce, from time to time, other attractions, in the way of embellishments. In addition to the aforegoing, there is yet another feature, no less than from the pen of the Editor! which will be commenced in the January number, and continued until completed. This will be within the year, so that all who subscribe for the Magazine during 1845, will receive this new work. Those who have read "Bell Martin," "Fanny Dale," "Insubordination," "Six Nights with the Washingtonians," "Sweethearts and Wives," &c. &c. from the pen of Mr. Arthur, need not be told that this feature will be a leading one.

In addition to this, Mr. Arthur will also continue to furnish for its pages, his shorter stories, those pointed moral essays, told with so much skill, beauty, and power. The attractions of the Editor's own pen, will, in fact, form a feature of peculiar interest to our work, which no other magazine can possess. While to one or two other periodicals he furnishes a story occasionally, each number of his own magazine will contain many pages of his inimitable writings, and the whole work bear the impress of his pure taste, and sound judgment.

The style in which "Arthur's Magazine" is to be issued, will be as beautiful as clear new type, fine white paper, and a richly Illuminated Cover, (pronounced the chastest design that has yet appeared) can make it.

Take it altogether, the publishers feel confident that, in regard to the quality of literary matter, style of embellishments, appearance, and mechanical execution, Arthur's Magazine will be unsurpassed by any other similar publication. This is not mere idle boast, and vain pretension. No one who has taken the work through the first and second volumes will so deem it.

SIZE OF THE WORK.—"Arthur's Magazine" will contain 48 pages of reading matter, the same quantity that is given by the three dollar Magazines, and give two Steel Engravings in each number, while the price is only $2.00 per annum, payable in advance.
