☞ NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That if the County Charges due on the within and aforegoing lands for the years 1840, '41 & '42, and Direct Taxes for the years 1841 & 1842, aforesaid charged on the Books of the County Commissioners for Dorchester County to the foregoing persons, shall not be paid to John H. Hodson Esq. late Collector of said County, within the space of thirty days after the publication of this notice is completed, the lands so charged as aforesaid, or such part thereof as may be necessary to raise the sum due thereon, together with a proportion of the legal charges, shall be sold to the highest bidder, for the paymant of the same. By order of the Commissioners for Dorchester County

WILLIAM REA, Cl'k. C. D. C.

Commissioners Office, Cambridge, Nov. 30, 1844. 4w

NOTICE.

THE Public are notified that the undersigned hath presented to the Board of Commissioners for Dorchester county a list of lands, whereon no personal property can be found liable for the payment of the County Charges and Direct Taxes, due me thereon—and whereas, by an Act of the legislature of Maryland, 1842, chapter 133, the laws in regard to the sales of such lands by Collectors have been materially altered and amended, and whereas many of those lands have changed owners since those charges have become due, in consequence of which it is desirable that land holders generally would examine carefully the advertisement, as some of their lands may be exposed to sale for charges due under former owners; and tax-payers generally are interested in making the lands sell, as all deficiences will have to come against the county as insolvent, and will, if large, swell the county levy beyond the usual amount.

November 30, 1844 4w

JOHN H. HODSON, late Collector.

Advice.—"Remember the least false step in the life of a female, is seldom or ever forgotten; therefore conduct yourselves at all times, and in all places, with modest propriety, always considering a heart free from pollution and crime, of more value than the richest gems of Peru. Let your motto be purity and religion, your guide, the Holy Bible; your associates those, who regard the laws of God and man, always letting duty govern your conduct rather than pleasure. Shun the libertine and the profane, however pleasing his personal appearance, or great his earthly possessions, regard him as a deadly foe; and ever worship at the shrine of innocence and truth, although it may be clad in the in the meanest garb of penury and want.

"Love your Enemies."—Father should we love our enemies? Certainly child, the book tells us so. 'Then of course father, we must love the devil, for he is our greatest enemy!' 'Go to bed child!

At a railway explosion, the firemen was the only one who escaped; he was blown so far from the place that he was conpletely out of danger.

Scarcity of Waiters.—One of the best things we have stumbled upon lately, is the following:

"A gentleman dining at a fashionable hotel where servants were few and far between, despatched a lad among them for a cut of beef. After a very long time the lad returned, and placed the beef before the faint and hungry gentleman. 'Are you,' said the gentleman, 'the lad who took away my plate for this beef?' 'Yes, sir.' 'Bless me!' resumed the hungry wit, 'how you have grown since.'"

Bits of Fun.—As a proof of the hardiness of the times, there is a man in Ohio, who killed only half a pig at a time.

A house painter in New York, grained a door so exactly in imitation of oak, that last year it put forth a quantity of leaves, and grew an excellent crop of acorns.

A correspondent of a picayune paper has such a cold in his head, that he can't wash his face without freezing the water.

There's an old fellow in Nashville who snores so loud, that he is obliged to sleep at a house in the next street to avoid waking himself.
