msa_sc2915_scm1013-0103 ©Maryland State Archives

collected was sufficient to pay all claims against the church it was ordered at the suggestion of Doct. Cheston that the Lay heretofore levied on the Pews, be suspended for the present - and that the Vestry proceed to collect the several sums now due from persons occupying the Pews heretofore taxed.

At the suggestion of Edward Hall it was ordered, that the Vestry contract for 1000 Chestnut Rails for the use of the Glebe. A contract was therefore made with Thomas L. Hall for the same at Sixty Dollars pr. Thousand - He the said Hall agreeing to furnish them at that price, to be hauled on the premises by Mr. Chaney the tenant - Thomas L. Hall agreeing to ~~work~~ wait twelve months for the money.

To defray the Current and incidental expenses of the Church it was ordered that the Sunday collections be reserved.

An order passed requesting Thos. L. Hall to purchase for the use of the church three Ton of Coal and twelve Hundred prime shingles to cover the portico of the Rector's Library.

An order was also passed directing Thomas L. Hall to apply the amount of money now in his hands (the same appearing to be Thirty three Dolls. 55/100 ($33.55/100) and any additional amounts coming into his hands to the payment of the debts against the church for repairs heretofore done -

Doct. Stephen H. Murry refusing to serve as Church Warden, John F. Wilson was unanimously elected to supply the Vestry's Vacancy - There being no further business before the Vestry - It adjourned -

March 6. 1860.

The Vestry met at the Parish Church Rest. Revd. M. M. Dillon Rector. John F. Wilson, Thomas L. Hall, Doct. James Cheston, Doct. Benj. L. Bird and Edward Hall. After Prayer by the Rector, He stated the object of the meeting was to correct an erroneous impression then existing. 1st regard to the funds heretofore raised by a Lay on Pews, it appearing at a former meeting of the Vestry that the amount then due was sufficient to pay the debt. but it was subsequently ascertained that a portion of it (supposed to be due) had been paid and properly appropriated. Which left a deficiency - It was unanimously resolved that it was inexpedient at present to levy a Lay on Pews to pay the balance of the debt but the Rector be requested to bring the matter before the congregation on the succeeding Sunday and urge them to be more liberal in their Sunday offerings -

The Treasurer presented his acct which was examined and passed -

Thomas L. Hall called the attention of the Vestry to the fact that the Railing round the needed repairs - John F. Wilson and Thomas L. Hall were appointed to have the same done. It was further resolved that the marsh lying at the South of the Parsonage should be drained - There being no further business the Vestry adjourned.

Easter Monday April 9. 1860

The annual Election of the Vestry took place. John F. Wilson, Dr. James Cheston, Samuel Cheston and Edward Hall were voted out. and the