OBITUARY.

"The Righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance" was the passage of scripture selected as the text of the funeral discourse, over the remains of Capt. EDWARD TRIPPE, who died very suddenly about 7 o'clock, on Monday evening the 2nd of February, at the advanced age of Seventy-five years. There is no one who has had the gratification of knowing him during the last fifteen years of his life, who can for a moment doubt his being embraced in the class thus denominated. As confidently as we may in our present state, claim the assurance of scriptural promises it may be asserted in relation to him, that he shall realize throughout eternity the glory predicated of this class of men. When to be had in the memory of posterity, has led so many to toil and struggle through long years of intense excitement, we can readily conceive how sweet to the human heart it is, to have attained earthly fame. But how can this compare with the promise here made "in everlasting remembrance?" and by whom?—by none other than the everlasting God. These words may well be a consolation to his devotedly affectionate family. Such a consolation as no temporal remembrance can furnish. But how true is it that the righteous leave behind them here a remembrance, and of what kind? Such as the proudest and the most ambitious sons of men may well desire. It is pleasing to recall the example of kindly benevolence—of heart felt hospitality—of generous sympathy—of expansive philanthropy—of marital devotion—of paternal affection—of enduring religious zeal—of watchful obedience—of disciplined resignation—of confiding and unwavering hope, of such an one. Of no one, with whom it has been my good fortune to have been long and well acquainted can it be said with better assurance, that he possessed all these qualities. Many a distant friend who had enjoyed his cheerful companionship and shared his universal kindness, while Captain of the line of boats between Baltimore & Philadelphia, will recognize this but a moderate tribute to his virtues, while those who have known him since his retirement, will recognize it as less than a just estimate of his christian character. Well did his patient and cheerful endurance of years of threatened dissolution attest how well such a character had prepared him for the last message to man; so well indeed that there are none to doubt, that had its coming been heralded by the ordinary symptoms, his words had left no less assurance of his readiness to go. But this was not the case. At the close of day, throughout which he had been apparently much better than was usual,—after having taken his tea as usual, and when he had a moment before observed, that he felt so much better he would take a good walk and was about to move a chair out of his way, he sank upon the floor, and without word or groan, and with only a breath, if indeed a breath it could be called, his spirit departed, thus almost realizing the statement of the apostle "We shall not all die, but we shall be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye."

WISTAR'S

BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,

A Compound Balsamic Preparation from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar.

The best remedy known to the world for the cure of Coughs Colds, Asthma, Croup, Bleeding of the Lungs Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Influenza, Shortness of Breath, Pain and Weakness in the Breast or Side. Liver Complaint. and the first stages of CONSUMTION.

A THOUSAND CURES in cases deemed utterly hopeless have firmly established its vast superiority over every former medical discovery. It has always been styled "Nature's own Prescription," being formed chiefly from chemical extracts from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar—two trees that are thickly scattered wherever diseases of the lungs prevail. We give a few instances of its extraordinary power from a catalogue almost without end.

A lady (address will be given at the New York Agency) who was given up by all her physicians to die of consumption, had a hard tumor for months on the side—raised among large quantities a sort of bony substance—had taken no medicine for two months, being past all hope—entirely cured by a few bottles of this Balsam in September and October, 1844.

A. Williams, Esq. Attorney, &c. New York cured of spasmodic asthma of 25 years standing, certified to by Recorder Tallmadge and J. Power, D D.

A Carman, N Y City who had not slept lying down for 7 years, (being obliged to sleep in a sitting posture) so far cured as to attend to his business in the most stormy weather.

Thomas Bradlee, Esq. J P Jamaica, L. I cured of asthma of 40 years standing.

Mrs Anna D Hopkins of Knowlesville N Y. entirely cured of Liver Complaint and general debility of eighteen months standing.

Jacob Hoffman, D D Huntington, cured a child of P Scroeblo of obstinate disease of the lungs after he had tried all the usual remedies in vain.

"There is no such thing as fail" in the history of this wonderful Balsam. Evidence the most convincing—evidence that no one can doubt—fully establishes this fact. For the sake of brevity, we select the following from thousands Isaac Platt Esq Editor of the Poukeepsie Gagle one of the most influential papers in the State of New York, states under the authority of his own name, that a young lady, a relative of his, of very delecate constitution, was attacked in February, 1842, with severe cold, which immediately produced spitting of blood cough, fever: and other dangerous and alarming symptoms. Through medical treatment and care she impartially recovered during summer. But on the return of winter she was attabked more violently than at first; she became scarcely ably to walk, and was troubled with cough, chills and fever every day and appeared to be going rapidly with consumption; at this time when there was no sign of improvement, Mr. Platt procuree a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which she took ane it seemingly restored her. She got a second and before it was half taken she was restored to perfect health, which she has enjoyed up to the present time, without the slightest symptoms of her former disease.

Mr. Platt says "this cure came under my own observation and I cannot be mistaken as to the facts."

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM A POST-MASTER, DATED

PEMBROKE, Washington Co. Maine, April 26, 1844

Mr. ISAAC BUTTS.—Dear Sir: At the request of many of my friends in this place and vicinity, who are afflicted with consumption and liver complaints, I take the liberty of asking you to appoint some one in in this county as agent to sell Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and to send him a few dozen, as there is none of it for sale within 100 miles from this. I have no doupt that it would meet with a ready sale if it were where it could be procured without too much expense and delay.

My wife was attack about six months since with what the physicians called the first stage of consumption—a complaint very prevalent in this section of county. Heaving seen the Balsam advertised in Augusta,

☞200 MILES FROM HERE.☜

I tookk the pains to send there for a bottle of it, which she took, and which helped her so much that I sent for two bottles more, which she has also taken, and she now says she has not felt so well for six years as she does at this time. All those who have inquired of me and ascertained what effect the Balsam had, are anxious to have some for sale in this vicinity, which is the cause of my writing to you.

Please inform me by return of mail wether you conclude to send some, and if so, to whom, in order that it may be known where it can be had.

I am, with respect' yours, &c.

P. G. FARNSWORTH, P. M.

The whole county is fast learning that no medicine—no physician—no preparation of any kind whatever—can ebual Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Mr. PALMER, Druggist, under date of Waterville, September 24, 1843, writes:

The statement given you by Mr. James Sage is well known to be true by this whole community. It certainly was a most remarkable cure. The sale of the Balsam is very good, and its success in cures truly flattering.

Yours respectfully,

D. D. PALMER.

THE MOST REMARKABLE CURE EVER RECORDED.

HADDONFIELD, N. J., April 23, 1843.

On or about the 13th day of October, 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side, near the liver, which continued for about five days, and was followed by the breaking of an ulcer, or abscess, inwardly, which relieved the pain a little, but caused me to throw up a great quantity of offensive matter, and also much blood. Being greatly alarmed at this, I applied to a physician; but he said he thought he could do but little for me, except give me some Mercury Pills which I refused to take, feeling satisfied that they could do me no good; many other remedies were then procured by my wife and friends, but none did me any good—and the discharge of blood and corruption still continued very few days, and at last became so offensive that I could scarcely breathe. I was also seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much more blood than I had done before—and my disease continued in this way, still growing worse, until February, when all hope of my recovery was given up; and my friends all thought I would die of a GALLOPING CONSUMPTION. At this moment, when my life was apparently drawing near its close, I heard of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and got a bottle, which relieved me immediately; and by the use of only three bottles of this medicine, all my pains were removed—my cough and spitting of blood and corruption entirely stopped, and in a few weeks my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade, (which is a carpenter,) and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.

THOMAS COZENS.

GLOUCESTER COUNTY, N. J., ss.

Personally came before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, Thomas Cozens, and being duly affirmed according to law, saith the above statement is in all things true.

Affirmed before me, on the 20th day of April, 1843,

J. CLEMENT, J. P.

Such is the unprecedented success of this BALSAM

"Nature's Favorite Prescription,"

a prescription congenial to our wants, as it is prepared from chemical extracts from substances which the Autnor of nature has placed in our own land for wise purposes, that many who know nothing of the mode of its preparation are endeavoring to reap pecuniary benefits by selling an article similar in name, or in appearance, or by representing their own trash as superior to this BALSAM, or by putting up a mixture and solemnly asseverating that it is imported from a foreign country, which is not the case. All these deceptive arts go to show that WISTAR'S BALSAM is known to the world to be "THE GREAT REMEDY," and that to sell any mixture it must be like this in name, or purport, to be like it in substance.

☞Believe not the cunningly wrought fabrication—and take only the original and genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild cherry.

NO OTHER CAN BE LIKE IT.

Address all orders to ISAAC BUTTS, No. 32 Ann Street, New York. Agents.

PROSPECTUS.

THE NATIONAL PRESS,

A JOURNAL FOR HOME; A REPOSITORY OF LETTERS: A RECORD OF ART; A MIRROR OF PASSING EVENTS

To be Published every Saturday, at Two Dollars a Year, in Advance.

GEORGE P. MORRIS, Editor and Proprietor.

A NUMBER of the most eminent literary persons of this country, have proposed to the under signed to publish, under the above title

A REFINED AND VALUABLE NEWSPAPER,

Upon a plain combining the highest resources of National Talent with the best elements of extensive popularity, and at so tifling an annual cost, as will place it within the convenient reach of

ALL CLASSES OF SOCIETY.

The control and management of this publication will form the exclusive and undivided attention of the Editor—Whose long experience, ample facilities and practised care, will be exerted to select unite and harmonise the various skill which is willing to seek development under his direction. The will differ from those of any journals heretofore established, while it will comprehend all that they contain of importanse to the community. The contents will be fitted to engage the attention of the men of business, and be a source of elegant instruction and entertainment to the.

SCOPE, DESIGN, AND CHARACTER OF THIS PAPER

DOMESTIC FIRESIDE AND FAMILY CIRCLE.

The leading characteristics of this paper will be as follows:

1. Early and Copious Intelligence of all interesting occurences in Literature, Society, and Art, both at home and abroad.

2. A Foreign Correspondence of tried popularity and acknowledged merit has been engaged, and will be commenced with the first number.

3. Productions in fiction, romance and historical narrative; Sketches of the taste and manners of the time; Essays, after the manner of the Tattler and Spectator, on subjects connected with social interests; biographical notices and anecdotes, literary and professional, bon mots, epigrams, and elegant trifles of every kind, the rumors of the day, and the comments that float upon the conversation of the hour—materials of this kind will form the ordinary staple of the work.

4. The department of Criticism will exhibit a Discriminating and popular survey of the Literary productions of the day. There will be a thorough and careful chronicle of every thing of value accomplished in Painting and Sculpture, and a candid and patrotic estimate of the National productions in comparison with other countries. Such exposition of the character and special excellencies of what is exhibited in Music will be constantly given; as may lead to the more intelligent enjoyment of that most imaginative and deticate branch of the Fine Arts.

5. No original papers will appear but those of obvious and decided merit; and the selections (which will commonly be from the foreign journals the least known in this country) will be made with the utmost attention and care.

The predominant design of the Editor is to add to the Republic of Letters a Weekly Journal, distinctly and decidedly national in tone and features, and at the same time, to avoid all connection with mere party politics. THE NATIONAL PRESS will, in brief, combine the striking and novel agractions of the newspaper, with the more abiding interest of the higher class of periodicals. It will be printed in the folio form, on large and superior paper, on a new and clear type, obtained expressly for the purpose, and will be, in its whole arrangement and details, a favorable specimen of the best typographical skill of the country. In addition to these, and as one of its most valuable peculiarities, it will be, in reference to the diversity of talent that will be employed upon it, the cheapest paper in the United States.

TERMS—Two dollars a year, or three copies for five dollars, invariably in advance.

It will be sent by mail to all parts of the United States, and to the British Provinces, done up in strong wrappers, with the utmost punctuality and despatch.

Postmasters are requested to act as agents, receive subscriptions, and make remittances.

The first number will be issued on SATURDAY, the fourteenth of February next.

That a probable estimate may be formed of the number of copies that will be required, subscribers would obiige the Editor by sending in their names at as early a period as possible.

Newspaper and periodical agents and newsmen supplied on liberal terms. Burgess, Stringer & Co. 222 Broadway, wholesale agents.

Subscriptions, orders, remittances, and all communications, to be addressed, post-paid, to CITIZENS & TRAVELLERS.

THE subscriber has taken charge of the Hotel lately occupied by Wm. H. Yates, Esq. where the travelling community, as well as the citizens of Dorchester, have been so agreeably entertained. If a table furnished with all the luxuries of the season, honest, and polite servants; chambers and bedding clean and comfortable, stables in good order and ostlers always at hand; in short, if a quiet, comfortable and orderly house can offer any inducement to the community, he flatters himself that his exertions to please will not be unrequited by a generous public. His wish is, to make it the interest as well as the pleasure of the public to bestow upon him a share of their patronage.

He intends always to keep in readiness, carriages and horses, by which he will be enabled to convey persons to any part of the peninsula on moderate terms.

ALGERNON HURLEY.
