July 10. 1861. The Vestry met present all the members. Mr. Wilson was called to the Chair, Thomas L. Hall stated the object of the meeting to be to consider and determine on the propriety of calling or inviting a Rector to supply the existing vacancy and in Compliance with a Request made of him at a former meeting to furnish the names of Clergymen who would be likely to accept a call Presented the following names all of whom were put in nomination Viz:
Rev. James D. McCabe D. D. The Rev. Mr. Trapnall The Revd. Mr. Nelson, the Revd. Mr. Beckwith, and the Revd. Mr. Hains who was recommended by the Revd. Doct. Cummings of Balto. Dr. Jacob proposed the name of Dr. McCabe seconded by Mr. Lott, who received six votes. Mr. Wilson expressing his preference for Mr. Trapnall but at the same time cordially endorsing Dr. McCabe, Thomas L. Hall having at different times expressed his intention to remain neutral but to endorse most cordially any one who obtained a Majority of Votes moved to declare the election of the Rev. Dr. James McCabe unanimous which was accordingly done.
On motion of Thos. L. Hall it was suggested that Doct. Jacob be required to write by the Steam Boat to day informing Dr. McCabe of his election and request him to Preach on Sunday next. Which Dr. Jacob promised to do. Thomas L. Hall called the attention of the Vestry to the propriety of completing the subscription list this week so as to be ready to present them at the next meeting of the Vestry.
