

cases are to be reviewed by the U.S. Grand Jury, Friday, June 14th. The unused Money Orders as well as those passed were retained by Major Hooten, P.O. Inspector, who claimed them as part of the record in the case.

Very respectfully,
JOSEPH MCGOVERN,
Captain of Detectives.

P.S. There was One-hundred and Seventeen of the money orders stolen from Station #129 New York City, in January, 1912, numbering from 8284 to 8400.

The Secretary was directed to confer with John Phillip Hill, United States District Attorney in regard to disposition of property and money taken from Berger and Burket, as mentioned, and report.

Habeas Corpus.

A writ of Habeas Corpus was served on the Board, the Marshal and the Captain of the Northwestern District, for the production on June 19th., 1912, before Judge Walter I. Dawkins in the Baltimore City Court, of Edward Womack, held on the charge of larceny committed in Sanford, N.C., and now confined in the Northwestern District Station-house.

It was ordered that the Marshal confer with the Warden of the Baltimore City Jail, with a view of having the said Womack kept in that institution until the time for producing him in Court, and that the matter be brought to the attention of Mr. Robert F. Stanton, the Board's Counsel, to answer for the Board as may be necessary in the premises.

Requisition.

Requisition No. 5, was drawn on the Mayor and City Council for $6,587.31, to pay the salaries of the Retired Officers of the Police Department for the month of May, 1912. (See Requisition copy-book.)

Womans Suffragists.Parade.
Request for Permission to Matrons to Take Part in.

Mrs. William Pinkney Holmes came before the Board at the instance, she said, of Mrs. Donald Hooker, to ask if the Board would not at it's meeting, to-morrow, pass a resolution giving permission for the Station-house Matrons who believed in Womans Suffrage, and
