and Consent of the Senate do appoint him a Judge of the Circuit Court of the United States in and for the fourth Circuit of the United States, and do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfil the duties of that office according to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and to have and to hold the said Office with all the Powers, Privileges, and Emoluments, to the same of right appertaining unto him the said George Keith Taylor during his Good Behavior

In Testimony whereof I have caused these Letters to be made patent and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed

Given under my hand at the City of Washington the twentieth day of February in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and One and of the Independence of the United States of America the Twenty fifth

L.S.

John Adams

By the President

J Marshall

acting as Secretary of State

Charles Magill Esquire produces here in Court the following Commission under the Seal of the United States and hand of the President, in the words and figures following to wit

John Adams President of the United States of America to all who shall see these presents, Greeting,

Know Ye that reposing special trust and Confidence in the wisdom, uprightness and learning of Charles Magill of the west District of Virginia I have Nominated and by and with the advice and Consent of the Senate do appoint him a Judge of the Circuit Court of the United States in and for the fourth Circuit of the United States and do authorize and empower him to Execute and fulfil the duties of that office according to the Constitution and Laws of the United States and To have and To Hold the said office with all the Powers, Privileges and Emoluments to the same of Right appertaining unto him the said Charles Magill during his good behavior

In Testimony Whereof I have caused these Letters to be made patent and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed

Given under my hand at the City of Washington this third day of March in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and One

L.S.

John Adams

By the President

J Marshall

acting as Secretary of State and they Severally took in open Court the oath prescribed by the Act entitled "an Act to provide for the more Convenient Organization of the Courts of the United States" Before the Honorable Samuel Chase Esquire one of the (associate)