Robert M'Culloch a native of Ireland and at present residing in the City of Baltimore appears in open Court here and exhibits his petition praying to be admitted to become a citizen of the United States; And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here that the said Robert M'Culloch had declared on oath taken in the Circuit Court for the District of Columbia on the 12th day of January in the year of our Lord 1819 that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, as will more fully appear by the Certificate of Naturalization Registry and declaration of Intention of the said Robert M'Culloch which here follows in these words and figures to wit

Circuit Court District of Columbia
County of Washington.

Robert M'Culloch a native of the County of Antrim Ireland, aged about twenty five years bearing allegiance to the King of Great Britain and Ireland, who emigrated from Belfast and arrived at Baltimore on the 13 day of September 1818, and intends to reside within the Jurisdiction and under the government of the United States, to wit, at the City of Washington makes report of himself for naturalization, and declares on oath in open Court, that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States of America, and to renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State and Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the King of Great Britain and Ireland according to the several acts of Congress in such case made and provided.

In Testimony whereof I hereto set my hand and affix the seal of said Court this 12th day of January 1819

Wm Brent Clk

That he has continued to reside within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States five years at least, and one year at least immediately preceding this application within the state of Maryland: that during the said term of five years he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. And the said Robert M'Culloch having declared on oath taken in open Court here that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate State and Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly all allegiance and fidelity to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. The Court here thereupon admits the said Robert M'Culloch to become a citizen of the United States.
