Among other was the following proceeding - to wit.

John Louis Meyer a native of Spain, comes into said County Court here, and makes oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State and Sovereignty whatever, and particularly all allegiance and fidelity to the King of Spain of whom he was heretofore a subject.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of my office, this 29th day of March in the year of our Lord 1825.

Wm Gibson Clk Balt Coty Ct

That he has continued to reside within the limits and under the Jurisdiction of the United States five years at least, and one year at least immediately preceding this application within the State of Maryland; that during the said term of five years, he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. And the said John Louis Meyer, having declared on oath taken in open Court here, that he will support the constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State and Sovereignty whatever, and particularly the allegiance and fidelity to the King of Spain. The Court here thereupon admits the said John Louis Meyer to become a citizen of the United States.
