To Thomas F. Farnan, Marshal

Sir:-

Referring to your letter of the 13th. and returning copy of communication in which complaint is made of the reckless actions of the driver of a street sprinkling cart on Lexington street.

This matter was investigated by Sergeant Barry, who reports, as follows:-

"In answer to complaint of W.W.Baldwin, I made diligent inquiry among the traffic officers about Thornton Robinson, col., driver of sprinkling cart and they all state he is a careful driver and that he complies with the traffic regulations. They never had cause to arrest him. He has been driving this cart since the big fire in 1904. My personal observations, I see no cause to arrest him so far, but will give my personal attention to him in the future."

Respectfully,

GEORGE G. HENRY, Captain."
