To The Board of Police Commissioners,

Gentlemen:-

We respectfully make application for a commission as special officer for our Night Superintendent, James E. Van Stavoren, who resides in this city at 3319 Beech avenue. We can thoroughly recommend the applicant as being of good moral character and a fit person to be vested with this authority.

We desire his commission to cover duties in and around our Garage, 1223-25-27-29 Cathedral street and in and around our regular stands, Union Station, Belveders, Stafford, Kernans, Caswell, New Howard and Carrollton Hotels; also during the Democratic National Convention, at the Armory. We only wish authority for him to act in so far as his duties pertaining to our own business are concerned, and would very much appreciate your issuing this commission at the earliest possible date.

Yours very truly,

F. G. Kitchen, Gen'l Manager."
