

OFFICE OF THE
BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

Court - House.

Baltimore, Md., Monday, June 24th., 1912.

Board met; present, Messrs Soper, Ammidon and Niles.

The minutes of the previous meeting, Saturday, June 22nd., 1912, were read, approved and adopted.

Trial.

Clerk James R. Ford, Western District, was tried upon charge, as follows, preferred by Captain Harvey P. Morheiser, Western District, found guilty of the said Charge, fined $25. and warned if he should be again found guilty of a similar charge he would be dismissed from the service:

C h a r g e :

Addressing remarks to me Captain Harvey P. Morheiser, in a disrespectful manner as to my conduct and the manner in which I perform the duties of the Western Police District and the Station-house, such remarks as I do as I dam please, do nothing but make work, find fault, and the Station-house is conducted as a gigantic whore house, about 7 a.m., June 21, 1912."

Patrolman Frederick A. Travers.

Charge, as follows, preferred by Captain Jonathan E. Moxley, Northern District, was lodged against Patrolman Frederick A. Travers of the Northern District, and Tuesday, June 25, 1912, was set for a hearing thereof:-

C h a r g e :

CONDUCT UNBECOMING AN OFFICER:

In that he on June 21st., 1912, while at the Oriole Park Base Ball Grounds, at Greenmount ave. and 29th. street, used disrespectful and profane language, in speaking of his superior officer, - Round Sergeant Owen E. Keelty, to Captain Jonathan E. Moxley, by going to the captain in an excitable manner and remarking "Captain, - I am tired of that God Damned Round Sergeant, on account of the way he is treating me", meaning the said Round Sergeant Keelty."

Patrolman Edward Ulrich.
Complaint against.

. Report, as follows, was received and the recommendation as