Prest. The Revd. Mr. John Long Messrs. Thos. Wells, David Weems Richd. Purnall, John Houlston, Abell Hill, James Deale & John Sappington & John Scrivener, Church Wardens -

Then the Revd. Mr. Long borrowed of that vestry Ten thousand four hundred & Seventy Six pounds of Tobbo. & agreed to repay the same when required w.th the Legal Interest of 8 p Cent & tho' he has been often requir'd either to repay the same, or secure the same to be paid by Bond or otherwise has refused & still refuses to do it, giving the following for his reasons viz.t -

Gent.n

When I'm released from the penalty's of two Bonds in w.ch I'm concerned for the repaym.t of that Tobbo. in Case the appeal should go ag.t Mr. Maccubbin, and when I'm informed that no acco.t is due by me to Mr. Charles Rogers on my employing him to negotiate that affair, than I'll pay the Tobbo. you mention but till then I will keep possession, & you cannot in Justice blame me, if I think right, w.ch is all the answer at present. w.ch answer not being satisfactory, & this vestry not thinking it consistent w.th the Duty of their Office to suffer so large a quantity of Tobbo. to lie out, unsecured Therefore this vestry have agreed & order'd that there be an Action commenced ag.t the said Long for the said Tobbo.
