

OFFICE OF THEBOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.Court - House.Baltimore, Md., Friday, June 28th., 1912.Board met; present, Messrs Soper, Ammidon and Niles.

The minutes of the previous meeting, Thursday, June 27th., 1912, were read, approved and adopted.

Trial.

Patrolman Frederick A. Travers, Northern District, was tried upon charge, as follows, preferred by Captain Jonathan E. Moxley, found guilty of the said charge and reprimanded.

C h a r g e :CONDUCT UNBECOMING AN OFFICER:

In that he on June 21st., 1912, while at the Oriole Park Base Ball Grounds, at Greenmount avenue and 29th. street, used disrespectful and profane language in speaking of his superior officer, Round Sergeant Owen E. Keelty, to Captain Jonathan E. Moxley, by going to the captain in an excitable manner and remarking "Captain, I am tired of that God Damned Round Sergeant, on account of the way he is treating me", meaning the said Round Sergeant Keelty.

(See Exhibit No. 3984.)

Floyd Crownhardt.Application for Re-instatement.

Communication was received from Floyd Crownhardt, Betterton, Maryland, who was appointed on the Police Force November 19, 1906, and who resigned therefrom September 10, 1907, asking to be re-instated.

The application was denied. (See Exhibit No. 3985.)

Policemens Protective & Benevolent
Association of Baltimore City.

In the matter of the Policemens' Protective & Benovlent Association of Baltimore City, as referred to in the proceedings of March 18th., and June 4th., 1912, resolution, as follows, was passed:

RESOLVED, That the Board of Police Commissioners fully agrees in the proposition that the association of members of the Police