"Baltimore, June 28, 1912.

To The Honorable,
Members of the Police Board, City.
Gentlemen:-

It gives me much pleasure in writing you a letter of commendation of Officer No. 176, whom I have learned to be W.C. Krotee. The way in which he attended to his duties at the Armory last night showed him to have good judgment, tact and a great deal of courtesy. He held the waiting crowd in check without causing any ill feeling and seemed to find a pleasure in finding seats for both men and women. I heard many remarks among the audience regarding him, and feel it my duty to bring his good points to your attention.

Yours very truly,
JOHN C. LEGG, Jr.
