Board of Police Commissioners,

Gentlemen:-

On July 3, 1912, a police sergeant and patrolman called at 1106 Lakewood avenue and made inquiries of several children as to who lived in this house and who visited the same and at what hours they were seen going in and out, and also inquired if there were any men boarders at this address. Now I would like to know the cause of these inquiries as the same has caused this family to receive an undue lot of notoriety for which there was no cause. Request for address of Mrs. H.W.Morgan.

Communication, as follows, was received and the request, as therein contained, was denied:-

"Baltimore, July 3, 1912.

Board of Police Commissioners,
Court House Bldg., Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sirs:-

While Mrs. H.W.Morgan was residing at 107 Hawthorn Road, Roland Park, she contracted a bill with us. When we endeavored to collect the bill, we found that she had moved and we then applied to the Post Office Department for her address. The Post Office Department informed us that under the provisions of the postal laws and regulations post masters are prohibited from furnishing addresses, but if we directed a letter to Mrs. Morgan at the former address it would be forwarded in accordance with her written instructions. We have already done this not only once but several times and no attention is paid to our communications. Is there any way in which you can supply us with Mrs. Morgan's present address or advise us the method we should employ to obtain same.

Regretting the necessity of troubling you, and thanking you in anticipation of your reply, we remain.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES STUART LOWRY & COMPANY."
