Asquith and the Revs. Orlando Hutton.
Nine blank leaves follow.
On the verso folio of the 9th is entered a Confirmation on July 5th 1846, of two persons, by Bp. Whittingham; attested by John Redout, Register.
There come Burials, headed on the Marriages, 1699.
They fill 7 leaves.

On the last leaf (verso folio) there are entries of Births (eleven) made with the page reversed — all of.

The Record Book begins with an entry of a sale March 15th 1787.
Then is recorded (in wretched spelling) the election of a Vestry Easter Monday, April 9th 1787. Present.
"Captain John Merriken; Captain Charles Boone; Captain Joshua Merriken; Mr Valhel (sic) Stevens; Mr Richard Jacob; Mr William Bumphery; Vaches (sic) John Ashban; Benjamin Fish; Vestrymen." Benjamin Fish, Register.
Nov. 12. 1787. entry is made of payments of "rent" by Richard Weedon and Thomas Tod, to the Register.
Dec. 3. " an entry of receipt of £25 in full for Cornelius Chaudo "rent of a glebe" due Nov. 5th.
March 6. 1788. Vestry "object against a scale being cut in the Vestry House and Desier no lisbee to Dissent till after their meting."
March 23 " Vestry resolves that money now due for rents of the glebes be applied "towards discharging a judgment that Walter McGowne obtained against John Walker."
July 7 " Register ordered to "give notice by advertisement that the Vestry will rent the glebes belonging to the Parish the first Monday in August next at the church for the ensuing year."
Aug. 4 " Record is made of the offers for rent of "that part whereon Mr Thomas Tod now lives at £25; that part whereon Mr Richard Weedon now lives at £22.10.-; that part that Mr John McCoben now tenders at £20." No person offered at those rates.
Sept 1. " T. Tod agreed for £22.10.0.; John McCobens "for the middle glebe whereon Cornelius Chaud formerly occupied" £18.
Vestry order Register to advertise that they intend to petition the General Assembly for a law to enable them to apply the rents to discharge a debt due the late Rev. William Hannah if it is wanting. (On Aug. 4th the Vestry had directed Mr Dorsey Jacob to employ a lawyer to appear in behalf of the Vestry in the suit brought by Mrs Sarah Hannah — evidently the deceased clergyman's widow.)
Nov. 5. " Vestry resolve that "the debt due the Rev. Walter McGowne's heirs" be discharged from the rents of the glebes.

Glebe

June 20. 1789. "The Vestry met on the lower part of the old Glebe near the head of a Cove called Lambs Cove."
Capt. John Merriken & Thomas Stinsecum showed the Vestry certain boundary marks — of which record is made.
Vestry agree to compound with Mr Chase, Mrs Hannah's lawyer.
Aug. 1. 1789 Vestry agree with Benjamin Fish to serve as "Clerke or Registor" till Easter Monday, and to pay him £4.10.0 for his services. [It was too much for such wretched spelling & writing!]
Thomas Tod is to have his farm for £20.1.0 —
Marginalia (in gilt frame) John McCobens his part for £16.1.0
[Thus the rents are steadily decreasing]
Richard Weedon his, for £20.0.6.
Aug. 11. " Mrs Hannah offers to take £225 or £200 and the subscriptions remaining due.
On the question whether the parish money (if lawful) shall be applied to pay the debt, three vote for it; one is "neutral"; one protests against taking the parish money.
Jan. 12. 1790. [Entries henceforth made in a beautiful hand]
Resolved that the Register take the Lock off the Chapple Doore and have a key made to it, that the Doore may be kept locke to keepe Hosses and Cattle from going into the House and damaging it."
Ordered to apply at the next Chancest Court for a commission to fix the bounds of that part of the Glebe land whereon Thomas Tod now lives, called Buck and Iron Stone Hills."
Aug. 1. " "The proceedings of the Convention of the Clergy being read for the better information of the Vestry now present, Mr John Small met at was of opinion that he was excluded from acting as a Vestryman any longer, as he was a member of the Methodist Church and would not contribute to the support of any other and therefore resigned.
John Fowler appointed Register in place of Benj. Fish deceased.
Oct. 21 " it appears that account of Rev. Walter McGowan has been fully settled with his Executor John Stewart. A judgment for £225 has been obtained by Mrs Hannah.
Dec. 6 " Register ordered to advertise for a commission to be taken out for the tracts "Buck" and "Iron Stone Hills."
£5.2.1 pd Richard Cromwell for glass in Chapel Windows.
Feb. 7. 1791 ordered to repair the Vestry House, to amount of £12 or £15.
June 13. " Charles S. Waters chosen Register at £4.10.0 per ann.
May 21. 1792 Richard Cromwell elected delegate to represent the Parish in Convention. [The first such entry.]
Aug. 30 " Register ordered "to advertise in the Baltimore
