Leave of Absence.

Sergeant Terrence Hughes, Northeastern District.

Sergeant Terrence Hughes, Northeastern District, came before the Board in respect to his application for six week's leave of absence, (four weeks of which without pay), for the purpose of visiting Ireland, on private business, as referred to in the proceedings of July 12, 1912.

After listening to the explanation of Sergeant Hughes, and conferring with the Marshal, who stated that the leave asked for by Sergeant Hughes might be granted without detriment to the service, the Board re-considered it's action of July 12th., in refusing Sergeant Hughes the leave of absence asked for, and ordered that it be granted.

Appointment of Sergeant.

Patrolman John A. Cooney, nominated by the Board of Police Examiners June 21, 1912, was appointed a sergeant; vice Sergeant William T. Russell, Western District, retired.

The vote upon the appointment of Patrolman John A. Cooney, a sergeant, as above, was:-

Commissioner Ammidon.....Yea,

Commissioner Niles.....Yea.
