the Enemy as we could with Safety where I left them under Command of Lieut: Addams with Orders if there should be any Confusion in the fleet to Push up with their Boats to Cheeny field Point where I would be I then went a Shore to the Point where our People from the Lower Camp, had been at Work all Night and by the time the Sun was rising Mounted the two Largest Cannon about an Hour after we Espied the Defence making up for the fleet The Fowey which Layal: a Mile from the Battery did not see her or seemed to take no Notice of her for more than an Hour when we Noticed Boats going a Head of her as we suppose to Carry out her Anker in Order to whey her out and in a short time we Observed her halling out when I Immeaditly Ordered the Cannon to be fired at her we fired four times from the Nine Pounder & twice from the four one of which the Nine we think hulled her the other struck about laying her Stern with I We leave Men in her I Saw them a Way little before the Fowey all the time halling out By this time Observed the Defence Put about and Stand down
