aforesaid then commanded in the King's Name to tell him the truth this Deponent then told him he was born in this Country and had a Right to defend his Liberty, Mister then said what these damnd Rebels call Liberty I call Slavery, & so the People will find it, this Deponent further sayeth that Marmaduke Mister went Pore to one of the Vessels that was burnd and was to have the Iron [redacted] for doing it. this Deponent sayeth that John Evans Robert Howith and one Price were likewise on Board the same Tender under the Command of the aforesd Joseph Wheland.
[redacted] he supposes, as he often heard them call him Captn, this Deponent saith he heard John Evans say he was determind to have several of the principal people on the Islands either dead or alive, or get some of their Negroes. this Deponent saith he has seen Joseph Wheland John Evans, Robert Howith, and Price the same persons mentioned since they have been under Guard at the Knights and that they are the same Persons he saw on Board the Tender above mentioned, this Deponent further saith on his asking Joseph Wheland for his Cloths Wheland threatned to put him in Irons in the Vessels hole. the Deponent likewise saith that John Evans told him not to be uneasy about his Cloaths and Money for Wheland would give them to him after he was ready to go for the Island, for the paper Money would be of no more use to him than Blank paper.

Sworn before Hugh Cuth[illegible]

121½