Donation.

Recommendation, as follows, was approved:-

"Baltimore, Md., July 16th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I beg, respectfully, to forward, herewith, Fifty Dollars received by Patrolman James K. Dick, Northeastern District, from the U.S. Government for the apprehension and delivery of deserter, Charles Frederick Kampe.

I would respectfully recommend that Patrolman Dick be allowed to retain Twenty Five Dollars of this amount, which is to include his expenses, and that the remaining Twenty Five Dollars be applied to the use of the Special Fund.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."
