

August 7, 11. Selling Liquor Without License. Not Guilty
Nov. 10, 11.

The Law is being violated at this place and there ought to be a way that we could reach them. It would not be a very hard matter for the police to close the place up if we knew how far we could go in the matter.

As long as this place is allowed to violate the Law on Sunday we will always have some contention with the people of South Baltimore and I hope that we will have some final instructions within the keeping of the Law so that we can act.

The 1912 license at the pavilion is also a Baltimore County License in the name of Ernest H. Trenth.

Attached please find a list of witnesses obtained by Officers William F. Link and William H. Pfaff on Sunday, July 14, 1912.

Respectfully,

CHARLES M. COLE, Captain.
