*(It is said that after the colored people got their freedom following the war, they all got married again: since it had been told around that their marriage bonds were not held over from slave times.)

Note p. 122 why are the records of Rept not continued from this date. It is a duty which should not be neglected. W T C

After the death of Rev Samuel Ridout, Bishop Paret requested the Vestry of St Margaret church Westminster to send this valuable register to the Diocesan Library to be kept in a fire proof place. The Register was kept in a new book from 1885
