DENTON, MARYLAND.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1902.

It has been announced that the Boer generals have abandoned their proposed tour of the United States.

The Union goes to its readers on this Thanksgiving day with best wishes to each one and the earnest hope that nothing may mar the pleasures of the day.

Some days ago General Corbin in his report, inveighed against early marriage of Army officers. Now, Bishop Duncan has warned the young Methodist ministers.

On December 9th, Justice Harlan will round out a quarter of a century of service on the Supreme Bench of the United States. An elaborate banquet is being prepared in honor of the famous jurist.

The Cuban House of representative has elected Senator Portuondo President of the Chamber. He is a strong anti American. If they really wish a reciprocity treaty they are going about the matter in a poor way to secure it.

The Pennsylvania Railroad has increased the the wages of 40,000 employees ten per cent. and the New York Central has done the same for 15,000; voluntarily and without strikes. And yet the Democrats claim there is no prosperity in the land—that it is all imagination.

In Cecil county the people have decided to do away with the saloons and in a number of towns in Delaware there is a continual contest between the temperance and liquor people. Local option in Caroline county has stood the test of years, and the othr counties,are now falling into line.

The Baltimore Sun hits the nail on the head when it says that "the State of Maryland, year after year, is lavishing money upon private schools for the supposed benefit of the few, while the public schools are sadly id need of more and better school-houses and more money to conduct them to the best advantage"

The Democrats of Dover have formed a permanent organization to fight Addicks. They see that they have no chance of success as long as Addicks stays in politics in Delaware, and they hope to keep him out of the United States Senate and put him out of politics permanently. To an outsider it looks as it they have a long and difficult undertaking on hand.

Attorney General Knox is reported to be on the lookout for any movement the beef packers may make toward perfecting the combination attempted last spring. It is said that an attempt of the kind made now would be construed as contempt of Court and the packers would lay themselves liable to severe punishment.

When Senator Harris of Kansas went to the government printing office, the other day, and directed that in the next Congressional Record he be classed as a Democrat, and not as a populist, he marked the passing of the populist party. His term expires on the 4th of March, 1904, and after that date there will not be a populist member in either branch of the Congress of the United States.

The temperence people of Kent county Delaware are organizing a determined movement to have the next legislature pass an act submitting the liquor question "license or no license," to a vote of the people. It is probable that the other counties will join in the undertaking. Delaware is getting behind the times in temperence matters and may well follow the example of the neighboring Maryland counties which have already disposed of this question. The majority of the best people are fast becoming opposed to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

FOR BETTER ROADS.

From the Wilmington Morning News:

Hundreds of tons of crushed stone are being shipped every month from this city to New Jersey and other places for the purpose of making better roads. This State is supplied with an unlimited quantity of granite and yet comparatively little of it is used at home.

If the state could become aroused to the necessity of building better roads, and impressed with the wisdom of enacting a sensible and comprehensive road act, wonders could be brought about in a few years. If the three counties would unite and bring about the building of a good highway, for instance, from Wilmington to Lewes, by way of Dover and Milford, it would do much to open up the state It would make the trip between Lewes and Wilmington a revelation to many folk who know but little of the two lower counties and the beauties of the state, to say nothing of the magnificent ocean front at Lewes.

It is economy to build good roads, and it is better to bring about the construction of two or three miles of perfect highway every year than to keep on patching up the make-believe roads to be found anywhere in the state The necessity for more mileage of good roads and a systematic scheme of repairing the highways should be apparent. Good roads are not designed solely for pleasure riders. They are an investment for owners of farms and others who have to use them, and for the people of the future. The saving of two or three horses a year is a matter of no small moment to many farmers, and it is better to use one horse instead of two.

The way is clear to provide a system of roads that would add to the wealth of the state and be of incalculable advantage to everybody. The agitation in favor of good roads should be kept up. Perhaps some day light may appear suddenly and the state will begin to adopt more modern methods of road building.

131 NEW MEMBERS FOR HOUSE.

208 Republicans and 178 Democrats Elected November 4.

The unofficial list of members of the House of Representatives in the Fifty-eighth Congress, issued by Thomas H. McKee, journal clerk of the House, after every district has been fully accounted for, shows that they number 208 Republicans and 178 Democrats.

All minor political distinctions disappear from this list, all members arraying themselves squarely with one or the other of the dominant parties.

There are 131 new names in the list, of whom 29 represent the additional districts provided for under the apportionment based on the Twelfth Census. Of the whole number 70 are Democrats and 61 Republicans. They include also half a dozen or more members elected to fill vacancies in the Fifty-seventh Congress caused by death and resignation within the past year—Brandegee of Connecticut, Gardner of Massachusetts, Dwight of New York, Sheppard and Russell of Texas and Glass of Virginia.

Among the new members are an unusual number of representatives who have previously served in the House. Illinois returns Lorimer, Marsh and Rodenberg; Kentucky, Rhea, who was unseated at the last session; Maryland, Talbott and Denny; Minnesota, Lind, who has been governor since he left Congress; New York, Sendder; North Dakota, Spalding and Pennsylvania, Hoff.
