War Office July 3. 1790.

Sir.

By order of the President of the United States. I have the honor to inform your Excellency, that colonel McGillivray and a number of the principal Chiefs of the Creek Nation, are on their way to this city, and that they will probably come through Baltimore accompanied by colonel Maurinus Willett

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

As these chiefs, particularly Colonel McGillivray, influence entirely the councils of the powerful nation of the Creeks, - The President is desirous that they should experience every proper civility and kindness. He is persuaded that your Excellency will have the goodness to forward his views in this respect, - and he therefore has desired me to recommend them with colonel Willett
