Delaware Fruit in Europe.

The Department of Agriculture has continued its shipment of fresh fruit to Europe this season and has just begun to send over early apples from New York, New Jersey and Delaware orchards. The market has proved to be good, and our fruit has had no trouble in competing with the English and French apples. In fact the shipments last year found such ready acceptance that the first shipments this year were looked for and snapped up at once.

The first consignment of early apples came from Delaware, and was sent on the steamship Minnetonka, July 25th. The returns were received recently at the Department showing the following prices net at at the pier in New York, which is, of course, exclusive of ocean freight charges:

Williams, carriers, boxes, $2.10; half boxes, $1.18; Randolph, carriers, boxes, $2.46; half boxes, $1.40; early strawberries, carriers, boxes, $2.15; half boxes, $1.46; Summer Hagloe, carriers, boxes, $1.50; half boxes 81 cents.

These are regarded as very satisfactory prices by American orchardists, being somewhat higher than prices realized at home. The Government will continue the shipments on into the fall until the English and French crops compete with ours, and after that the usual shipments of our winter apples will go forward until the Australian crop comes into market.

A Surgical Operation

Is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.

Holly, Cape May, Salem, Wilmington, West Chester, Reading and principal intermediate stations. A stop-over will be allowed at Buffalo within the limit of ticket returning.

An experienced tourist agent and chaperone will accompany each excursion.

For descriptive pamphlet, time of connecting trains, and further information apply to nearest ticket agent, or address Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

—A number of young men from the United States Bureau of Forestry, while working on Division Creek, near Snow Hill, ran into a colony of snakes of an unidentified species. The snakes were from 3½ to 5 feet in length. They killed 23 while 82 escaped.

—A remarkable new industry has suggested itself to lower Delaware farmers and they are now engaging in it with a large measure of success. It is shipping young turkeys to the city markets, particularly New York. Young turkeys were not known in the markets until recently. Lately they have been found to be remarkably fine for swell hotels and epicures, and, as they bring fancy prices, the farmers prefer to sell rather than take the desperate chances on raising them.

—A tournament held at My Lord's Gift, near Queenstown on Wednesday, August 12th, under the auspices of St. Peter's Catholic Church, was attended by 1,000 persons. Fourteen knights contested. W. J. Connolly won first prize, $10, and crowned Miss Shortall queen; C. Jackson was second, winning a prize of $5, and crowned Miss Selby first maid; Mr. Milton Elbin won the third prize, $3, and crowned Miss Neve Hopkins second maid, and T. B. Connolly won the fourth prize of $1 and crowned Miss Mary Golt third maid.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secret mucin, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. "Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.

Smith—Come and go with me to the zoo.

My oldest daughter does the kangaroo walk; my second daughter talks like a parrot; my son laughs like a hyena; my wife watches me like a hawk; my cook is as cross as a bear, and my mother-in-law says I'm an old gorilla. Kent's Investigaton Falls Flat.

The efforts of the Democrats Kent county to make political ca tal out of the examination of county finances has proven a failure and the Democratic part now responsible for saddling county with a big bill for the penses of the expert accountant, a the extra session of the grand ju An attempt has been made to sh a floating debt of nearly $70,0 The Chestertown Enterprise gi the following version of the sche

"We confess that our vocabul is totaly inadequate to fittingly press a proper denunciation and r utation of these gross misrepresen tions. Perhaps the most emphs and unequivocal contradiction can make is to say that the statements are absolutely untrue.

As a matter of fact Mr. Blacklock's statement does not show that there is now a single dollar of floating debt unprovided for, except the $5,811.58 for claims omitted from the levy of 1903—and which were omitted because the accounts were not presented in time to be provided for in this levy, notwithstanding the fact that the Commissioners published a notice to all persons to file their bills before a certain date prior to declaring the levy.

As an expert accountant, Mr. Blacklock's statement is based upon the theory that the county finances should be a cash in advance basis—that is, the tax levy which is declared about the first of June in each year should be to raise funds to pay debts which might be contracted during the next succeeding twelve months, instead of paying debts that had already been incurred during the past or preceding twelve months. A theory altogether at variance with the custom heretofore in vogue in this county for time immemorable."

High-Salaried Men.

A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, draws the largest salary of any railroad official in the United States. He is credited with receiving $75,000 a year. A number of other railroad presidents receive $50,000 a year each

In the matter of salaries the industrials appear to be more liberal than the railroads. S. C. T. Dodd, the general solicitor of the Standard Oil Company, probably receives as large a salary as any other in the country. Including commissions, he is understood to receive $260,000 a year. It is not known what the salary of John D. Rockefeller, the president of the Standard Oil Company amounts to. If there is any other person in the United States who receives as large a salary as Mr. Dodd it is not generally known.

Charles M. Schwab, expresident of the United States Steel Corporation, drew a salary of $100,000 a year. There are 12 other persons in the employ of the United States Steel Corporation who receive a salary of more than $20,000 a year. S. R. Callaway, president of the American Locomotive Company, is credited with receiving a salary of $100,000 To accept this position Mr. Callaway resigned the presidency of New York Central. As the head of New York Central he drew $40,000 a year.

It is not known what the salary of Henry H. Rogers, president of the Amalgamated Copper Company, is. Mr. Rodgers succeeded Marcus Daly, who received $100 000. It is thought that Mr. Rogers receives a larger salary. Henry O. Havemayer, president of the American Sugar Refining Company, is said to draw a salary of $100,000 a year. C. A. Coffin, president of the General Electric Company, is understood to receive $75,000 a year.

The largest salary paid any bank president in the countay is understood to be $50,000 a year. Several New York bank presidents are known to receive this salary. There is one bank president in Chicago who is also said to draw a salary of $50,000 a year. As a rule, bank presidents are wealthy, and their salary forms only a small part of their income. George F. Baker, president of the First National Bank, is believed to be worth more than $30,000,000. James Stillman, president of the National City Bank, is worth about $12,000,000. Most of the other presidents of the large Wall street banks are millionaires.

To pay homage to beauty is to admire Nature, to admire Nature is to worship God.

Beauty is worse than wine; it intoxicates both the holder and the beholder.—Zimmerman.

Love that has but beauty to feed on is short lived and subject to fits. —Erasmus.

To marry a woman for her beauty is like buying a house for its paint.

A man generally pays well for his love of the beautiful.

The Lord prefers common looking people; that is why he made so many of them.—Lincon.

If the eye do not admire,
The heart will not desire.

Without the smile from partial beauty won,
Say what were man? A world without a sun.—Campell.

Remember, that if thou marry for beauty, thou bindest thyself all thy life for that which perchance will neither last nor please thee one year! for the desire dieth when it is attained, and the affection perisheth when it is satisfied.—Sir Walter Raleigh—to his son.

Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Theophrastus, a silent cheat; Theocritus, a delightful prejudice; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Domitian said, that nothing was more grateful; Aristotle affirmed, that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer 'twas a glorious gift of nature; and Ovid, alluding to him, calls it a favor bestowed by the gods.

The Foundation of Health.

Nourishment is the foundation of health—life—strength. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the one great medicine that enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and transform all foods into the kind of blood that nourishes the nerves and feeds the tissues. Kodol lays the foundation for health. Nature does the rest. Indigestion, dyspepsia and all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs are cured by the use of Kodol. Sold by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.

Retort Courteous.

Biggs—My, but you have long ears!

Diggs—Yes. All I lack is your brains to be a perfect donkey.—Chicago Daily News.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignifiant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25c at R. J. Colston's drug store.

A Fortunate Selection.

Mother—What are these senseless trinklets for?

Pretty Daughter—They are for the grab-bag at the church fair.

"Mercy! There is not one thing that any human being could want."

"Yes, isn't it fortunate? Everybody who draws a prize will put it back in the bag."—N. Y. Weekly.

Just About Bedtime

Take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, billiousness and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membranes of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro.
