By a letter from Baron de Kalb dated at Chesterfield Court House the 10th of this month I find that General Phillips is arrived with 1500 or 2000 men — the enemy keep still within their limits and their projects are as yet unknown

Some days ago I had the honor of giving to Your Excellency an account of a discovery I had the good luck to make relating to a mode of furnishing stores to the enemy which many disaffected people within this state seem to have adopted — one paul Bird a quaker has made his escape, but just over he was detained I beg leave to request he should be sent to the military authority — Pigot being convinced of coming within the description of a spy was hanged at Susquehanna ferry — out of three other men concerned in this trade who upon the information of Pigot were taken up, and whom the inclination of the country requested Major M'Pherson to carry off with him one has been shot in attempting to force his way from the guard, the two others will be delivered to Col Smith — from the confession of Pigot we have got two other names which Your Excellency will find in the inclosed letter to Major M'Pherson, an officer