

payment of reward for the apprehension and delivery of deserter A.G. Raynor.

Patrolman Henry A. Busky, Northeastern District, arrested Raynor and delivered him aboard the Receiving Ship at Philadelphia, Pa.

I would respectfully recommend that Patrolman Busky be allowed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) of the amount of reward, and that the remainder ($25.00) be applied to the use of the Special Fund. It is understood, of course, that if the Twenty-five Dollars are allowed Patrolman Busky his expenses are to be included in this amount.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

"Baltimore, Md., July 20th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I beg, respectfully, to forward herewith, Twenty Dollars ($20.00), received by Captain Thomas B. McGee, Southwestern District, from E.O. Garrett, an Officer of the National Training School, Washington, D.C., for the detention and delivery of one Stephen Pichowsky alias Van Dorn, an escape from the National Training School.

In view of the fact that Pichowsky alias Van Dorn, surrendered himself, I would respectfully recommend that the within Twenty Dollars be applied to the use of the Special Fund.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."

"Baltimore, Md., July 22nd., 1912.
