THE TICKET.

The Republican candidates at the opening of the campaign needed no introduction to the people, and after several weeks of active canvasing they are much less in need of one. They are all men who have lived long enough among our people to give abundant evidence of their sterling traits of character and their genuine worth to the community.

The position of Judge of the Orphans' Court is one in which politics should have little part and the candidates presented by the Republicans are men whom any citizen can point to with pride as leading business men of the county. With Judge Sigler, with his experience, at the head of this important department of county affairs, backed by the sterling integrity and business ability of his associates, H. Franklin Stevens and Edward E. Nuttle, no business can possibly come before the Orphans' Court that will not be equitably and fairly settled. Mr. Stevens made a splendid record as a member of the School Board, and his summary removal to make room for a Democrat is well remembered. Mr. Nuttle is one of the county's most successful business men and comes of a family which boast of more successful business men than any other in the county.

Albert G. Towers, the candidate for States Attorney, like his opponent on the Democratic ticket, as the saying goes, is a Caroline boy. If Caroline has had a more earnest and painstaking attorney in the past twenty years we fail to recall him. He has discharged his duty faithfully regardless of friend or foe, and comes before the people with a clean record. The faithful administration of the office of States Attorney, brings many unpleasant duties to be performed, yet Mr. Towers has unflinching met and discharged them all, according to the requirements of the law and his best judgment. He has made no enemies except through the faithful discharge of his duties.

There is no more important office to the taxpayers of the county than that of County Commissioner, and the candidate on the Republican ticket needs no endorsement of his qualifications from us. He accepted the nomination only at the earnest solicitation of both Democrats and Republicans, and no candidate on the ticket has received more voluntary proffers of support from the people regardless of party. It is for the best interests of the county to elect Daniel J. Zacharias.

Robert C. Rice, the candidate for Sheriff, is popular on both sides of the river, where he has lived and is best known he is the most highly esteemed. His business trrnsactions are prompt and square and the affairs of the county will have able and prompt attention at his hands.

While the office of county Surveyor is regarded as of minor importance, the election of a competent and practical man is to be desired. The careful and correct laying down of roads and public lines may save much litigation in the future to both individuals and the county. Mr. Noble's thorough fitness for the place is acknowledged, and no man on the ticket is more worthy of election.

The remaining candidates on the ticket have already been mentioned, and a more thoroughly capable set of men seldom come before the people. Let every Republican give them his hearty support and their election is assured.

THE Democrats are full of resources. Who is there that believes that there is anything in the announcement of the candidacy of Raynor or Poe for United States Senator from Maryland? Are not all the nominees for the House of Delegates Gorman men, and is not Gorman pledged to John Walter Smith? Who could have put Gorman where he is but Smith with his extra session? There is nothing in it but another Gorman bluff. The best thinking Democrats do not want Smith. His acts as Governor and the extra expense he has saddled upon the State to satisfy the ring and to make sure his election to the United States Senate, have disgusted all honest voters. Look at the Democratic nominees in our county and the counties around us, and recall the manner of their nomination. Are they not tied hand and foot to the bosses? All this boom for Raynor or anyone else for United States Senator is another Democratic trick. The matter was taken from the people long ago, and if the Democratic nominees are elected to the House of Delegates John Walter Smith will be the man. He has paid the price with the people's money and Gorman is bound to deliver the goods.

IT IS hard to estimate just how many votes Mr. Warfield lost by his unfortunate Stevenson Archer allusion. It has caused comment—favorable to Mr. Williams,—and in vituperative condemnation of Warfield all over the state. It should be remembered too, that every vote Mr. Williams gains by it, means two lost to Warfield.

HOW many men placed as Mr. Williams was by the ungentlemanly utterances of his adversary, with regard to Mr. Archer, would simply have stated the plain legal aspect of the case as he did, instead of entering into details, which would have been very embarrassing to prominent Democrats all over the State, but his personal friends.

THE issue in this campaign is not black supremacy, in one sense, and in another sense that is the issue. Shall the Democratic ring with a record blacker than the skin of any African, succeed to the entire control of the State government? That is the issue and nothing more so far as the Democratic party is concerned Elect Warfield and it means Gorman rule.

A DEMOCRATIC worker in the 7th district some time ago said they had a trick, if the candidates would let them use it, that would swamp the whole Republican ticket. Look out for this trick. They are beaten now but some trick might win for them yet.

WARFIELD speaks of earning a salary "by the sweat of his brow." Whoever his paymaster, he is unquestionably very lenient with him, for he has not, to our positive knowledge, done any sweating for several months, save that of sweating for office. Convenient business that runs itself, isn't it?

IT IS said in Baltimore that Mr. Warfield has assessed the employees of the Fidelity and Deposit Company for his campaign. That is honestly an outrage. The F. & D. Company is not a political machine, although Mr. Warfield has been using it as such.

THERE is no candidate on the Prohibition ticket for States Attorney. All we ask is that the Prohibitionists examine the record of the present Republican official. Has he discharged his duties or not, in prosecuting offenders of the liquor law?

LIKE in the old days, when Gorman said "jump" and Warfield jumped; Murray Vandiver said "jump" and Warfield jumped. He jumpes from the negro, for the first time in this campaign, to President Roosevelt.

MR. WARFIELD denies that he stood shoulder to shoulder with the Democratic bosses for over 20 years. He may have stood back to breast, for all we know, but what's the difference so long as he stood?

AN Electric train in Germany at a test made last week developed a speed of 131 miles per hour. This is a fast age, but it strikes us this is getting through the world just a little too fast.

ALL this talk about Raynor's "eloquence" makes us a bit tired and calls to mind the story of the 4-foot engine with a 6-foot whistle that stopped whenever this whistle blew.

THE Democrats in a quiet way are attempting to assail the records of some of the Republican candidates, but with very poor success. They need to do this quietly, for from all reports the acts of a certain Democratic candidate for the Legislature have not always been entirely on the square. Neither can they point with pride to the administration of county affair a couple of years prior to 1897 when another of their candidates was a member of the board of County Commissioners. The people do not forget in a day, and it will be well for taxpayers as well as certain individuals, to refresh their recollections on some points before casting their votes.

THE campaign the Democratic party is making in its attempt to secure for its ring absolute control of Maryland is a disgrace to the State and a reproach to decency everywhere. The Democracy of Maryland is supposed to be part of a national party; yet it presents no sound proposition to the people, discusses no salient issue. Upon every question of public administration, every proposal of beneficial legislation, every principle of civic righteousness, decency or virtue it is silent as a tomb. Its own record is to it as a sealed book, the contents of which must not be mentioned.

EVERY voter, no matter how well educated he may be, how much experience he has had in the solving of intricate problems, should this week make a careful study of the official ballot, so that he may feel certain he will make no mistake when he marks it in the polling booth on election day.

MR. WARFIELD demands of Mr. Williams that he quote chapter and verse to sustain the charges of which he has been accused. The people remember these things, and Mr. Warfield will have to consult chapter and verse himself in order to prove his innocence. Before the people he stands convicted.

SEVERAL young Democrats of this place are showing their aversion toward the colored race by making a house to house canvas among the colored voters and making them generous offers for "single shots" for a candidate for whom they have a deep interest.

IF THE Democrats responsible for the purchase of negro votes would let up on the practice for awhile, there would be less of this "race issue" in Maryland.

Rheumacide

Continues to make Miraculous Cures

READ THIS LETTER:
ALMOST A MIRACLE.

DILLON, S. C., Aug. 18th, 1902.

Gentlemen:—In September, 1899, I took rheumatism in a very bad form. In a month after the disease started I had to give up my work and go to bed. It continued to grow worse until my arms and hands were badly drawn, so much so that I could not use them. My legs were drawn back until my feet touched my hips. I was as helpless as a baby for nearly twelve months. The muscles of my arms and legs were hard and shriveled up. I suffered death many times over. Was treated by six different physicians in McColl, Dillon and Marion, but none of them could do me any good, until Dr. J. P. Bowling, of Dillon, came to see me. He told me to try your "RHEUMACIDE." He gave me one bottle of the medicine and I began to take it and before the first bottle was used up I began to get better. I used five and a half bottles and was completely cured. That was two years ago, and my health has been excellent ever since. Have had no symptoms of rheumatism. I regard "RHEUMACIDE" as by far the best remedy for rheumatism on the market. I cannot say too much for it. I have recommended it to others since and it has cured them.

Will say further, that I began to walk in about six days after I began to take "RHEUMACIDE," with the aid of crutches; in about three months after I began to take it, I could walk as good as anybody, and went back to work again.

Very truly, JAMES WILKES.
