

subjected I would respectfully recommend that he be allowed to retain the amount received by him from the Police Department of Chicago, Ills.

Very respectfully,

JAMES MANNING, Deputy Marshal."

House, - 231 Hill street.
Sadie Plater.

In respect to house 231 West Hill street, complained of, as referred to in the proceedings of July 15th., and 19th., 1912, a further report, as follows, was received, read and ordered filed, see Exhibit No. 4024:

"Baltimore, Md., July 19th., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

Since forwarding my report of the 18th. instant, in respect to house #231 Hill street, I am advised by Cap't Charles M. Cole, Southern District, that he is in receipt of additional information which leads him to believe that house #231 Hill street is being conducted as a bawdy-house by one Sadie Plater, (colored), and I have therefore reported her to the Grand Jury, with witnesses, charging her with keeping a bawdy-house at 231 Hill street.

Very respectfully,

THOMAS F. FARNAN, Marshal."
