

Policemens' Protective & Benevolent
Association of Baltimore City.

In the matter of the Policemens' Protective & Benevolent Association of Baltimore City, as referred to in the proceedings of March 18th., June 4th., 28th., and July 1st., 1912, the dissolution of which association was ordered July 1st., 1912, a communication, as follows, was received, with a statement as shown hereunder:

"July 18th., 1912.

Mr. Josiah A. Kinsey, Sec.,

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed you will find a statement of the Expenses of the Policeman's Protective & Benevolent Association, also receipted bills paid by the Association and bills which are still due and unpaid, and one monthly instalment due the Counsel, for which I have not the bill, but which I think is in the hands of the President.

Respectfully,

A. J. PLANTHOLT, Temp. Treas."
