

1XKAD

tom of his drawers, or in his shoe.

Captain Henry further informs me that Turnkey Kane is a very reliable, efficient and trustworthy officer. I would therefore respectfully recommend that Turnkey Kane be relieved of any responsibility in this matter.

Very respectfully,

JAMES MANNING, Deputy Marshal."

Donation.

James K. Dick.

In the matter of reward paid by the United States Government for the apprehension of a deserter by Patrolman James K. Dick, North-eastern District, as referred to in the proceedings of July 16, 1912, Patrolman Dick came before the Board and stated, that his expenses in the delivery of this deserter amounted to $16.30, and that he had promised to divide whatever amount came to him with a man from whom he received information leading to the arrest; that the amount allowed him by the Department was one-half of the reward or $25.00

Patrolman Dick asked the Board to re-consider its action and allow him one-half of the reward, after deducting the $16.30 expenses.

It was ordered that the matter be referred to the Marshal for his recommendation in the premises.

The Secretary reported receipts, as follows:-

Fines & Costs, July 19, -----	$151.40
Fines on Officers, -----	32.50
Deduction 2% pay of members, -----	885.35	$1,069.25
Fines & Costs, July 20, -----	$ 33.35
Fines & Costs, July 21, -----	118.50
Public Entertainment Permits, -----	5.00	$156.95

The Board adjourned at 11:15 a.m.

Joseph A. Manning
SECRETARY.