A TRIBUTE BY MINOR C. SMITH.

"'Tis sweet, as year by year we love
Friends out of sight, in faith to muse
How grows in paradise our store."

This thought came once more with redoubled force, as we read in the last issue of the METHODIST, that our true, tested and beloved friend of other days had fallen asleep—had gone up to God's paradise to rest,

It was our privilege to have known this good woman from the early days of childhood. We attended the same Church and Sabbath School when "hearts were gay and cares were few." We spent many happy hours in her home, and found her a rare and priceless jewel; one who cared little for self if by sacrifice she could make others happy, always cheerful, obliging, kind. We somehow felt she was akin to that good woman, called Mary, of the Holy Writ. She truly had her spirit doubtless drawn from the same source.

For more than twenty years, after growing to manhood's estate, we saw but little of her, when, however, her husband was appointed pastor of Mt. Pleasant Charge, near Wilmington, we again met her in the work of the Church. Aside from the changes that come to all as years are added, we then found her possessed of the same gracious spirit as of old. Her spiritual life had been founded upon a rock. Changing scenes and advancing years, the wear and strain of life, may whiten locks and furrow faces, but the heart redeemed to God goes on to perfection, unmoved by the ills of life and its cares. We rejoiced in finding our sister still sweet within, even if the roses had faded and some of the sparkle of her eye had abated.

This woman was well-reared. We recall no home in all those we ever knew, where the spirit of the Master was more manifest. Henry Thawley and his estimable wife were the Lord's elect. No matter how many young folks gathered in that home, that good father read the Word of Life and offered prayer before he retired; "grace before meat" was never omittee; the King's business always received attention. No wonder, therefore, that this young life, converted in youth's morning, reared and cultivated under such surroundings, should have been strong and beautiful.

The cares of home and much bodily suffering, after her marriage, made it impossible for her to become an active factor in the work of the Church, as she otherwise would have been. Yet, she did do much for the Master. Her heart was ever interested in all those things that looked to humanity's uplift. She leaves to her husband and the three lovely young women who blessed their union a rich and priceless legacy in a life of purity and unselfish devotion. To the world, as she touched it in her daily walk, she leaves the impress of a life "Hid with God, through Christ," for

"Death hath made no breach
In love and sympathy, in hope and trust;
No outward sign nor sound our ears can reach;
But there is an inward spiritual speech
That greets us still, though mortal tongues be dust,
It bids us do the work that they laid down—
Take up the song where they broke off the strains;
So journeying till we reach the heavenly town,
Where are laid up our treasures and our crown,
And our lost loved onees will be found again."

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 20, 1910.

Rev. Benjamin Parker Truitt Dead.

Rev. Benjamin Parker Truitt, a prominent minister of the Maryland Annual Conference, Methodist Protestant Church, died at the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore, on Tuesday morning in the 49th year of his age. Mr. Truitt had been sick about 17 months. He was operated upon by Dr. J. M. T. Finney for colitis several weeks ago, and it was thought by his physicians that he would recover. A week ago however, a turn for the worse took place from which he never rallied.

Mr. Truitt was one of seven children of the late Benjamin and Martha Truitt, of Wicomico county, Md. He attended school at Green Hill and afterward graduated with distinction at St. John's College, Annapolis. He joined the Maryland Conference in 1887, and among charges he served was the church of his denomination in Denton, which he left after a successful pastorate of three years, for First Church, Washington, D. C., where, at the time of his death, he was just rounding out a six year term universally honored and beloved. He was an an able and pious minister of the Gospel and his ministry was one of fruitage.

The funeral will take place in the church of which he was pastor at 2 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon. Rev. Dr, J. M. Sheridan, President of the Conference, will deliver the eulogy and other speakers will be Rev. Dr. F. T. Tagg, Rev. Dr. T. O. Crouse, Rev. J. M. Gill, Rev. J. B. McLaughlin, and Rev. Fez Swem. The pall bearers will be Rev. R. L. Shipley, Rev. G. Q. Bacchus, Rev. E. C. McCoskey, of Baltimore; Rev. J. M. Gill. Rev. J. B. McLaughlin, of Washington, and Mr. T. Pliny Fisher, of Denton. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Surviving relatives are his wife, Mrs. Belle Truitt and three children, Miss Alma, Messrs. Charles and Benjamin Truitt.

Wife Slayer's Body Found

The body of Edward Driggins, the negro who murdered his wife Jan.17 at their home near Preston, was found Saturday floating in Linchester river by William G. Loewe, a trapper.

After the crime officers tracked Driggins to the river, and it was thought he had drowned himself. The river was dragged and dynamite exploded in efforts to recover the body, but unsuccessfully. Failure to find the body led many to think he had escaped, and three weeks ago the County Commissioners offered a reward of $100 for information leading to his arrest. The body, which had been in the water 40 days, was in a good state of preservation, except that the lips were mutilated and the skull split, presumably by dynamite exploded near him. His parents refused to have anything to do with the body, and it was buried at the county's expense.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia
If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trified with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it.
Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.
Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.
When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.
Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.
Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.
Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Our Guarantee
Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.
Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
