of the Other, wherefore all hostilities both by Sea and land shall from hence forth cease, all prisoners on both sides shall be set at liberty and his Britannic Majesty shall with all convenient speed and without causing any destruction, or carrying away any Negroes or other property of the American Inhabitants withdraw all his Armies garrisons and fleets from the said United States and from every post place and harbour within the same, leaving in all fortifications the American Artillery that may be therein and shall also order and cause all Archives, Records, Deeds and papers, belonging to any of the said States, or their Citizens, which in the course of the War may have fallen into the hands of his officers to be forthwith restored and delivered to the proper States and persons to whom they belong. —

Article 8th The Navigation of the river Mississippi, from its source to the Ocean, shall for ever remain free and open to the subjects of Great Britain and the Citizens of the United States. —

Article 9th In case it should so happen that any place of Territory belonging to Great Britain or to the United States, should have been conquered by the Arms of either from the Other, before the arrival of the said provisional Articles in America, it is agreed that the same shall be restored without difficulty, and without requiring any compensation. — Article 10th The solemn ratification of the present Treaty, expedited in good and due form, shall be exchanged between the contracting parties in the space of six Months, or sooner if possible to be computed from the day of the signature of the present Treaty

In witness whereof we the undersigned their Ministers Plenipotentiary, have in their name, and in virtue of our full powers signed with our hands the present definitive Treaty, and caused the Seals of our Arms to be affixed thereto — Done at Paris, this third day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty three. —

D. Hartley — John Adams — B. Franklin — John Jay —
Seal Seal Seal Seal

That the said David Johnson on the second day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy six became a subject and Citizen of this State and ever since hath been and yet is a Citizen and subject of this State, and that Letters of Administration of all the Goods Chattles rights and Credits which were of the said Thomas Bladen at the time of his death was duly granted to the Plaintiff in this Cause since the death of the said Bladen and before the commencement of this Suit. —

And it is agreed that if the Court shall be of Opinion on this state of facts that Nothing is due to the Plaintiff then the Judgment for the Plaintiff, shall be struck out and Judgment entered for the Defendant for his Costs, and that each party is to have aught to Appeal from the Judgment and Opinion of the Court and on such Appeal to have the same advantage of the facts here stated as if a Jury had been sworn in this Cause and these facts had appeared in an exception taken at the trial to the Opinion and direction of the Court to the Jury or as if they appeared in a special Verdict found in this Cause. —

W. Cooke Ptff — David M'Mechen for Deft —

Whereupon all and singular the premises being seen and by the Court now here more fully understood and Mature deliberation being thereupon had the Opinion of the Court now is that, It is considered by the Judges here that the said Daniel Dulany Administrator aforesaid recover against the said David Johnson as well the sum of one thousand pounds Current Money of Maryland the debt aforesaid in form aforesaid herein before confessed as also the sum of eleven hundred and eighty nine pounds and four fifths of a pound of Tobacco by the Court here unto the said Daniel Dulany Administrator aforesaid on his Agent adjudged as well for his damages sustained by reason of the detention of that debt as for his Costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended, And the said David Johnson in Mercy &c —

Memorandum, It is also considered by the Court here that the above Judgment be released upon payment of the sum of four hundred and Ninety six pounds fifteen shillings Current Money of Maryland with Interest thereon from the first day of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy five to the fourth day of July one thousand seven hundred and seventy six and from the third day of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty three until paid and Costs of Suit. — Whereupon the aforesaid David Johnson by his Attorney aforesaid prays an Appeal from the Judgment aforesaid so as aforesaid rendered to the States High Court of Appeals and the same is granted. — It is therefore Ordered that the Record and proceedings in the premises aforesaid be transmitted to the High Court of Appeals accordingly —

Test, John Givinn Clk —

Afterwards to wit, On the thirtieth day of December seventeen hundred and Ninety the aforesaid David Johnson produced the State of Maryland's Writ of Error commanding the Judgment aforesaid