

reward for the apprehension and delivery of deserter James Smith.

As there were no expenses incurred incident to the apprehension and delivery of this deserter I would respectfully recommend that the amount called for in the within check be applied to the use of the 'Special Fund'.

Very respectfully,

JAMES MANNING, Deputy Marshal.

---

Cable, - Purchase of.

In response to invitations sent out July 24, 1912, bids, as follows, were received to furnish the department with 3,000 feet combination cable, in accordance with specifications: (See proceedings of July 24, 1912).

Safety Insulated Wire & Cable Co.....$94.00 per M. feet.

National India Rubber Co..... 94.00 do

Bishop Gutta Percha Co.....102.00 do

Standard Underground Cable Co.....103.00 do

John A. Roebling's Sons Co.....182.00 do

The bid of the Safety Insulated Wire & Cable Company ($94.00 per M. feet), was accepted, by the following vote:

Commissioner Ammidon.....Yea,

Commissioner Niles.....Yea.

(See Exhibit No. 4058.)

---

Hackney Carriage Stand.

Communication, as follows, was received:-

"Baltimore, Md., July 31st., 1912.

To The Honorable,

The Board of Police Commissioners.

Gentlemen:-

I beg, respectfully, to forward, herewith, application of Charles S. Chester to stand an automobile, for hire, on the east side of Marsh Market Space, near the corner of Baltimore street.

In view of the favorable report of Captain George G. Henry, Central District, I would respectfully recommend that