A number of news items sent in by subscribers in the country last week were received too late for publication. Please have your letters in as early in the week as possible. They should be mailed on Monday when it can be so arranged, on account of the very slow transportation of mails to and from points in the lower part of the county.

At the recent reunion of the survivers of the first Maryland Regiment held in Denton a change in the name of the organization was made, and hereafter it will be known as "The Association of the First Eastern Shore Maryland Volunteers and other Veterans of the Civil War." This will include veterans of other regiments residing in this part of the State, quite a number of whom were present this year. We are informed that Rev. A. Norman Ward, pastor of the Denton Methodist Protestant church on Tuesday received a call to the Peoples Church of Kansas City which includes a chair in Theology in the Kansas City University. Mr. Ward is comparatively a young man, but in his ministry of fifteen years he has filled some of the most prominent appointments in the gift of his church. He came from Seattle, Washington, to Denton pastorate last April and has already won a warm place in the hearts of his congregation. He is an able preacher and his removal at this time would be greatly regretted.

The steamer Vesper, owned by L. B. Towers, of this place, is out of commission with a hole in her side. She had just discharged her cargo at the Greensboro wharf and was backing out to turn around when she struck a piling which had rotted off below the water line. She was beached and lies along the shore with considerable water in her hold. Mr. Towers has consulted with Baltimore wreckers, and as the expense of raising her will be quite heavy, it will not be attempted at present. Mr. Towers' steel hull steamer, "Edenton," which has been undergoing repairs to her decks and other woodwork at her wharf here is about completed, and will take the Vesper's place in a couple of weeks.

Grand Jury's Report.

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Circuit Court for Caroline County.

We beg leave to submit our report as the Grand Inquest of the State of Maryland for Caroline county. We have been in session six days, have examined seventy-two witnesses and returned nine true bills of indictments. Messrs. James H. Stevenson, R. Boon Beauchamp and Thomas Taylor, a committee designated by this body to examine the Denton Bridge and County Jail, report the jail well kept generally, but find a leak in the roof causing the plastering to fall off in the hall, and that four window lights are needed. We recommend that the cell toilet be put in a more sanitary condition. We find six prisoners. We report the Denton Bridge in fair condition, and recommend a new double track bridge at an early date.

Messrs. Levi Voshell, Jr., J. R. Jones and G. L. Griffith also appointed by this body to visit the Alms House, report six white and nine colored inmates, well cared for by the overseer and matron. We find three killing hogs, twenty shoats, and one brood sow and five pigs in fine condition. Four cows one yearling, and one bull, one pair of mules, four horses, one colt, one new wagon, one new binder a new sulkey plow and other implements sufficient for the farm. Two hundred and fifty bushels of wheat and sufficient grain to feed the stock. The out buildings are in poor condition and should be replaced with new ones.

Respectfully submitted,
